Judge Refuses Delay In Preliminary Hearing Of Clark

Efforts of State to Gain Postponement for One Week Prove Fruitless

Attempt to Dismiss Double Murder Charge Against Clark Defeated

LOS ANGELES, May 28.—(UP)—The preliminary hearing of David H. Clark charged with the double murder of Herbert Spencer, magazine editor, and Charles Crawford, political boss, proceeded today after one of the most involved legal battles in the history of the city.

Two veterans of the bar—Special Prosecutor W. Joseph Ford, and W. L. Gilbert, attorney for Clark, were pitted against each other—and victory went to Gilbert. Ford, during his battle for a week's postponement with the object in mind of forcing Clark before the grand jury, now being formed, went into one of the deepest bits of strategy ever seen here. For several hours he had attempted to stop the preliminary hearing, even ordering a new murder complaint, charging Clark with only the slaying of Spencer, to be drawn up. It was his hope this would cause dismissal of the double charge and keep Clark in jail. Municipal Judge Carl Sturzenacker, however, overruled Ford's efforts, and ordered the preliminary hearing.

"Very well, your honor, the people rest," said Ford. The crowded courtroom was visibly surprised as this meant the double murder charge would be dismissed by the court. Gilbert, however, saw through his rival's plan in an instant. If the double charge was dropped, Clark immediately would be arrested on the new count charging only Spencer's death. Leaping to his feet, Gilbert shouted:

Swordfish In Attack On Man's Nose

SAN DIEGO, May 28.—(UP)—When a dog bites a man, it may not be news, but when a swordfish snaps at a man's nose, it's front page material.

Robert Crowley, fisherman aboard the tuna clipper Shasta, returned to port today to relate his spectacular struggle with a Marlin swordfish off Lower California, when with Claude Schooley, he was attempting to land the fish.

Leaning over the side to gaff the huge fish, Crowley's nose was struck and nearly severed by its sharp beak.

TORNADO HITS TRAIN: THIRTY PERSONS HURT

One Man Killed and Property Damage Heavy at Moorhead, Minn.

MOORHEAD, Minn., May 28.—(UP)—Death, suffering and property damage marked today the zig zag trail of a freak tornado which swooped down upon a fast northern Pacific train near here and hurled eleven passenger coaches from the rails.

One man was killed and more than 30 persons injured when the twister flipped the train from the tracks. A few minutes later another man was crushed to death when the tornado descended again at a point 18 miles away.

That no more were killed in the unique wreck was considered miraculous, but no less so than the fact that the tornado skirted all centers of population and killed only one as it swept across farm lands of North Dakota and Minnesota.

Rescue work was hampered by a cloudburst which accompanied the tornado. Seven inches of rain fell within a few hours in some places. The man killed in the wreck was identified as James Anderson of Montevideo, Wash. He was thrown through a window as the coaches rolled over and was crushed when the train settled down upon its side.

On his farm 18 miles away, Andrew Hatfield saw the twister coming, ran to his storm cellar and was crushed to death when a block of concrete fell upon him.

Crop and property damage amounted to thousands of dollars, but was comparatively light because of the freakish way the storm

Favorable Crops Expected To Boost Business In U. S.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—(UP)—High administration officials whose duties keep them in closest touch with the business situation, look to the harvest and crops of late summer and fall to determine the extent of improvement which may be expected in the business situation.

They believe favorable crops, although prices may be low, will furnish an index of business improvement. Recovery in past years of the business world followed good crops, they point out.

Department of agriculture reports show favorable crop prospects throughout the country except for a small region in the Pacific northwest.

Working with Keyes is Cromwell Ormsby, former attorney for Aimee Semple McPherson, who is serving a term for complicity in the Oakland paving graft scandals. The attorneys will give legal advice to other convicts in preparing appeals and paroles.

U. S. Mayors Visit Paris Night Clubs

Quarreling Over Question of Who Speaks Ends—Party in Harmony

PARIS, May 28.—(UP)—The air cleared today as America's sightseeing mayors ended the quarrel which had developed over the question of "who gets the spotlight."

Mayor George Baker of Portland, Ore., chairman of the group and storm center yesterday because some of his companions thought he was making himself too prominent had explained the affair and it had been decided that henceforth a committee of five would decide who would deliver speeches and where. Baker commented:

"It's like a regiment with only generals and no privates. But now everybody takes a turn at speaking. All's quiet on the western front."

Mayor Baker's half-hour speech at the tomb of France's unknown soldier yesterday brought matters to a crisis, but Mayor R. D. Marvin of Syracuse, youngest of the travelers, placed himself in an opposite position today when he refused to make any speeches.

"It isn't part of our contract," he remarked, with demure face but a twinkle in at least one eye. It was noticeable today that the mayors were adopting the French custom of sipping wines and cordials instead of gulping them. Usually they left their glasses half-filled.

"It isn't really a change of morals or a swing toward teetotalism," explained Mayor Marvin, "but because everything is so plentiful and open that there is no incentive to drink. The prohibitionists should have realized that man is human. He never wants to do anything until it's forbidden."

Southern members of the party have been noticeably cool toward

PARAFFIN TEST PROVES SUICIDE OF AGED MAN

Unidentified Man Dies at County Hospital—Is Found at Beach

A 60-YEAR-OLD MAN, whose identity so far is cloaked in mystery due to the fact that all marks of identification had been removed from his clothing died at the Orange county hospital at 9:30 a.m. today from a pistol wound in his head, fired with suicidal intent, in the sand at Huntington Beach.

A new test, recently adopted by the Los Angeles sheriff's office, and staged at the hospital a short time after death removed the man, definitely established the fact that the man had killed himself. It was the same test Los Angeles authorities used in the Crawford murder case in Los Angeles to determine that Crawford fired a shot before he and Spencer were killed.

Frank Gumpert, of the Los Angeles sheriff's office made the test with paraffin at the hospital. With the use of certain acids in paraffin, the paraffin was placed on the man's fingers. Working on the theory that when a person fires a pistol, the explosion of the bullet caused gases to escape which will stick to the fingers of the person who fired the shot, the treated paraffin brings out these gases in colors even after death. The test was positive, clearly establishing that the unidentified man committed suicide, according to Herman Zabel, finger print expert here who witnessed the test.

YACHT BELIEVED DESTROYED BY FIRE

NEW YORK, May 28.—(UP)—A charred life preserver washed ashore indicated today that a fire partly destroyed the yacht Sea Fox in Long Island sound and perhaps claimed the lives of seven talented young persons.

The bodies of two women aboard the craft have been recovered from the sound. A body identified as that of Miss Doris Dewey, 29, psychologist and head of Bellevue hospital dental clinic, was found floating off Sheffield Island, near Norwalk, Conn., yesterday, about four miles from Collinder's Point, where the body of Mrs. Ethelwyn Marcia Snedden, also a psychologist at Bellevue, was found the previous afternoon.

RALPH BARTON RITES KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 28.—(UP)—The ashes of Ralph Barton, New York artist to whom success brought only dissatisfaction culminating in suicide, rested today under the trees of Mt. Moriah Masonic cemetery here.

As a score of Barton's boyhood friends in Kansas City gathered to pay him a last tribute, Dr. John Emerson Roberts, pastor of the Church of This World, delivered a brief and simple eulogy. The ashes were then committed to the earth.

DESTROYERS NEAR SOVIET SUBMARINE

MOSCOW, May 28.—(UP)—Destroyers today surrounded the spot where the Russian submarine No. 9 went down off the Estonian coast.

The submarine went to a depth of 350 feet on May 22 but did not return to the surface. The dive was made during training maneuvers.

Government agencies failed to announce the number of men aboard. The destroyers were placed on guard after two airplanes located by oil spots on the surface the place where the craft went down.

CYCLONE DAMAGES VILLAGE IN ITALY

MILAN, Italy, May 28.—(UP)—A violent cyclone lasting 35 minutes extensively damaged Desio, native town of Pope Pius XI, in Lombardy 11 miles north of Milan today. Roofs were torn off most of the houses and hundreds of trees were uprooted.

Inhabitants of the town were in great panic, but while property damage was extensive, there were no human casualties.

A statue of the Pope in the town square was damaged. An allegorical figure representing Justice, forming part of the monument, had its scale torn away.

WILL ROGERS SAYS: BEVERLY HILLS, May 28.—(To the Editor of The Register:)

We have all kinds of various "weeks"—"eat an apple week," "don't shoot your husband week," "don't cuss the Republicans any more than you can help week." But Claremore, Okla., the home of the great radium water, is having this week one of the most practical and useful ones—"take a bath week." They can't relieve the present depression but they relieve the issues. Even the Rotaries and Kiwanis, Lions, Apes and Chamber of Commerce have joined in the novelty of the thing, and it bids fair to become a yearly event. My old friend Gov. Murray and myself have been cordially invited to attend.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

GUARDS PLACED NEAR VATICAN TO HALT RIOTS

Disorders Between Catholics and Fascist Cause of Drastic Move

ROME, May 28.—(UP)—Anti-religious disorders and violent demonstrations against the pope in Rome, traditional stronghold of Catholicism, resulted in strong military patrols being placed around the borders of the tiny Vatican state today.

The approaches to the papal state were guarded by a company of infantry, under orders to suppress any demonstration. Detachments watched side entrances and troops patrolled the Victor Emanuel bridge leading to the district.

The disorders which caused these precautions occurred in the last three days when Fascist students and Catholics held demonstrations, attacking each other. Fascist and Catholic newspapers joined the attacks, each charging the other with open hostility.

It was reported today that the dispute might result in diplomatic negotiations between the government and Vatican authorities.

Federation Head Asks Employers to Guarantee Wages

WASHINGTON, May 28.—(UP)—Exhortations to spend freely can have little effect on wage earners unless they feel secure about their income, according to William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Urging employers to guarantee future work to at least part of their workers, Green today expressed the belief that this would stimulate buying and aid business recovery. His statement was in a sense a corollary of his previous recommendations for an annual wage.

In addition to a guarantee of work, he proposed three other expedients: Proration of all available work among employers, discontinuance of wage cutting, and community relief planning with the aid of industrial funds and municipal and charitable organizations.

Nearly 100 Talesmen Examined

Deputy District Attorney to Outline State Case This Afternoon

SAN DIEGO, May 28.—(UP)—Indications that a jury would be agreed upon late this afternoon to try Alexander Pantages and three co-defendants on morals charges involving two young girls, was the first break in the monotonous questioning which has been under way since Monday.

Nearly 100 prospective talesmen had been through the box since the trial got under way, and almost without exception, were excused for cause.

Deputy District Attorney Oran Muir was expected to outline the prosecution's case to the jury immediately after it was sworn in, with defense attorneys following.

Thomas Whelan, district attorney, was ready to accept the jury as it stood late yesterday, but defense challenges changed the complexion of the panel again.

A new panel of veniremen was called from another courtroom late yesterday, after the first panel had been exhausted. Both prosecution and defense expressed hope that the jury would be completed today.

Only seven challenges had been used, most of them by the prosecution.

One of the major points of interest in selection of a jury revolved about the attitude of veniremen of the liquor question and how they would regard a man who "takes an occasional drink."

It was disclosed that the defense wanted a "liberal" jury, preferably one of men.

Eight men and four women occupied the jury box as tentatively selected jurors when court opened today.

ALTITUDE OF 52,000 FEET IS ATTAINED

Prof. Piccard Declares He Reached His Goal and Made His Observations

INNEBRUCK, Austria, May 28.—(UP)—Prof. Auguste Piccard returned to civilization today after a balloon trip to the outer reaches of the earth's atmosphere, announcing that he had reached a height of 52,000 feet, approximately 10 miles and achieved valuable scientific observations.

Piccard and his companion, Chas. Kipfer, landed in the closed aluminum gondola of their balloon at about 10 o'clock last night on a glacial peak 75 miles southeast of here. They spent the night on the glacier which is about 12,000 feet high, and made their way today to the village of Gurgl, perched among the mountain valleys.

Piccard told the chief of local police over the telephone he had soared to the height which was his goal, a point never before reached by man.

He described the trip as wonderful, and the voyage over the Alps as especially beautiful. The balloon, he said, behaved magnificently and was always in complete control.

OIL BURNING PLANE ESTABLISHES RECORD

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 28.—(UP)—Walter Lees and Fred Bross, flying a Diesel-motored oil burning Packard plane, broke the world's non-refueling endurance flight record at Jacksonville Beach here today.

At 11:10 a. m. E. S. T., the plane continued to soar smoothly through the air, having surpassed by an hour the old time of 75 hours and 23 minutes.

The plane still had 12 hours of fuel, it was reported, but the two fliers expected to land about sunset. High tide will be over the beach at that time, and it was thought that the landing might be made at Jacksonville Municipal airport.

Pioneer Arizona Woman Accused of Killing Husband

TUCSON, Ariz., May 28.—(UP)—Mrs. Louise T. Marshall, 79, wealthy Tucson pioneer, today stood formally charged with first degree murder for assertedly killing her husband, T. K. Marshall, 59, local business man. Her bond was placed at $20,000.

Conviction on the charge would result in Mrs. Marshall being sentenced either to hang or to imprisonment for life, authorities said.

Mrs. Marshall fired four bullets into her husband's body while he was asleep in their home several weeks ago, according to police. He was taken to Los Angeles to have the bullets removed but died before the operation could be performed.

Seattle-San Diego Daylight Airplane Line Inaugurated

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—(UP)—The Boeing system today inaugurated a new daylight passenger plane service on its line between Seattle and San Diego.

As a feature of the inaugural flights, the mayors of the cities exchanged letters.

The first northbound plane left San Diego at 7:30 a. m. and Los Angeles at 8:50 a. m. It arrived at San Francisco at 11:50 a. m. and was scheduled to reach Portland at 5:20 p. m. and Seattle 6:50 p. m.

The first southbound ship left Seattle at 8 a. m., scheduled to arrive at San Diego at 7:30 p. m.

skirted cities and farm homes and swept for the most part across open fields. Several times, it was said, the great green funnel lifted, only to strike again at some point miles away.

The accompanying cloudburst did almost as much damage as the tornado itself. Telephone and telegraph lines were impaired in several sections. Six miles north of Watertown the Great Northern railroad tracks were washed out by floods. The entire town of Marvin was flooded to a depth of several feet.

The passenger train was enroute from the west coast to Chicago when the tornado hit it broadside and flipped it over as though it were a straw.

Passengers who suffered only minor injuries crawled from the wreckage and aided others out. Special trains were sent from Moorhead and Fargo to take the injured to hospitals. Rails were so badly twisted where the train was rolled off that the relief trains could not go through.

One relief train brought 102 uninjured persons here. Thirty-seven were taken to hospitals here and at Fargo. Most of them were discharged quickly. Several were said to be hurt critically.

Among the injured persons taken to St. Stanislaus hospital at Moorhead was:

Mrs. Alida Best, Pasadena, Calif.

Mother and Son Selected On Same Jury

A circumstance that is believed to be of unusual interest in that it is reported to be the first time it has ever occurred, at least in Orange county courts, was discovered today in the court of Judge James L. Allen where a jury is hearing evidence in a damage action.

Membership of the jury includes a mother and son, according to persons familiar with the parties. They are Mrs. J. W. Law, of 315 South Birch street, and R. N. Law, of the same address. Both were on a special panel of 25 which was ordered to provide a jury for the case, and both were drawn for service.

COL. PRYSTOR FORMS CABINET IN POLAND

LONDON, May 28.—(UP)—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Warsaw reported that a new cabinet was in office today, headed by Col. Alexander Prystor.

The only changes the dispatch said, were the appointment of Jan Pilsudski, younger brother of Marshal Joseph Pilsudski, as minister of finance and General Sarsyoki as minister of commerce. Colonel Prystor, who had been minister of commerce, relinquished the portfolio to become premier, succeeding Col. Walery Slawek.

performances of Josephine Baker, American Negro, starring at the Casino and highly popular throughout Europe.

Most of the mayors conducted a "psychological study" of Paris night life last night and they had divided opinions as a result. Mayor Welmsley insisted that "it's not nearly as bad as Harlem but I must admit the Casino display of flesh is notable."

Mayor Marvin commented: "Paris is really as sinful as its reputation. I cannot understand how the streets could be so tolerated. They stopped me 12 times between the Folies Bergere and the hotel. Paris is tame until midnight, but after that the sidewalks are teeming with sin."

Duarte Brothers Given Releases

Francisco and Salvador Duarte, who were charged with assault upon Jesus Ortiz with deadly weapons, have been ordered released from custody by Judge H. G. Ames following a verdict of not guilty returned by the jury which heard evidence in the trial of the two men in Judge Ames' court. The assault which they were accused of making was alleged to have occurred on April 25. The jury required less than 20 minutes to reach its verdict.

Marcus Carrillo Held To Answer

Marcus Carrillo, Santa Ana Mexican, charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, was held to answer to the superior court from Justice Kenneth Morrison's court today, at the conclusion of his preliminary examination. Bail of $500 was demanded, which he did not make.

The car Carrillo was said to have been driving collided with a machine driven by Roy Adams, at First street and the Buena road, last Sunday. No one was reported injured.

Court Notes

Marcia Rains charges cruelty, desertion and failure to provide in a divorce complaint which she has filed against Elmer M. Rains. They were married in Nebraska in 1923 and separated May 15, 1930.

A decree of quiet title to three lots in the Seventeenth street section of Huntington Beach is asked in a complaint that has been filed in superior court by the South Basin Oil company. The action names 35 defendants.

Alleging that certain profits have been received by some of the defendants from an estate of inheritance to which he is an heir, and that no accounting has been made for his proportionate share, suit was filed yesterday by Walter C. Stadtegger against George B. Stadtegger et al. The plaintiff asks for a partition of real and personal property, a decree of quiet title and an accounting.

Calvin Coolidge Says

BY CALVIN COOLIDGE

Former President of the United States
NORTHAMPTON, May 28.—The national foreign trade council now in session at New York emphasizes the important place that international commerce holds in the world. It embraces nearly all the important elements of agriculture, industry, transportation and finance. A surprisingly large number of the essentials of our daily life are of foreign production and our own goods are found in every corner of the globe.

The basis of all trade is an exchange of materials and services. The important function of the council is to discover and advise our merchants how and where such exchange most advantageously can be made.

It is only in the last 20 years that we have had a country-wide organization reinforced by extensive governmental agencies for the promotion of foreign trade. Our phenomenal success came from being informed concerning the needs of other people and being able to supply them in a satisfactory manner at satisfactory price.

The permanent foundation for trade lies in service. So long as we benefit people with our goods we can expect to supply them. Since only about 10 per cent of world population has reached the higher standards of consumption the opportunity for world progress through foreign trade is boundless.

TOASTMASTERS LEADER TO BE HARRY LEBARD

Unless some political upheaval occurs before next Wednesday, it is likely that Harry LeBar will be chosen president of the Toastmasters club for the coming year, and that he will have associated with him as vice president, W. H. Wright, as secretary-treasurer, D. H. Tibbels, and C. J. Ruley as sergeant-at-arms.

These candidates were recommended at last night's meeting by the nominating committee, and they will be up for election at the meeting next Wednesday night.

The program last night was handled by W. H. Wright as toastmaster, and brought out in a convincing manner the ability of the speakers. In variety of subjects treated and skill in handling, it was pronounced one of the best demonstrations given in recent months.

W. J. Ferris discussed "Tar and Its By-Products." A. A. Brock spoke on "Plant Immigrants." Francis Hill described a trip to the summit of Mt. Whitney. Grant Henderson considered "The Boy Problem." A. G. Green related the development of "Law of the Sea," and H. C. Fleider delivered an impromptu talk.

Walter Willis, a member of the Santa Barbara Toastmasters club, was a visitor, and spoke briefly in greetings from his club.

For next Wednesday evening, the program will be staged by the past presidents of the club, with William Iverson in charge.

ALTITUDE OF 52,000 FEET IS ATTAINED

It was not even damaged in landing on the glacier, he said.

Consequently, the delicate scientific instruments in the gondola and the charts and observations of the trip were expected to be preserved to science. Piccard was reported to have returned to the mountain this afternoon to retrieve them. The local newspaper quoted him as saying the trip was "a great scientific success."

Piccard's trip in his oxygen-chamber to the rarified and bitterly cold regions above the earth excited the imagination of the world, even before the start and after his landing, the quiet unobtrusive scientist was calm and matter-of-fact, insisting that as the father of four children he was not risking his life and was confident of the safety of his expedition. He was little thrilled by the record height he had achieved, but exhibited quiet satisfaction over the scientific results obtained.

The trip, beginning just before 4 a. m. yesterday at Augsburg and ending shortly after 10 p. m. in the Gurgl range of the Tyrol, lasted 18 hours. Grave anxiety was felt yesterday and during the night when the balloon did not land, as the oxygen carried was sufficient for only ten hours. However, it was pointed out that the oxygen would not be drawn on all the time in the air, but only when the balloon was in the upper atmosphere.

The complete story of the amazing journey remains yet to be told. In the absence of an explanation of why Piccard did not come down sooner, it was assumed that when the balloon ascended within about 15,000 feet of the earth, it encountered strata of varying temperatures which made it inadvisable to attempt an immediate descent.

Piccard announced he had obtained an abundance of most valuable scientific data which would give scientists of the world material to work over with months of calculations. He said the trip was the most wonderful experience he ever expected to have, not only from the standpoint of adventure but primarily from that of a scientist.

Piccard and his companion arrived at Gurgl together. Gendarmes were unable to say whether they missed the relief party by taking another route.

The program includes participation of a firing squad, an airplane, and an address by Judge H. G. Ames of the Orange county superior court.

The Legion drum corps, colors, color guard and a firing squad from Co. L, 160th Infantry, California National Guard, will assemble at the north gate to the cemetery and march in a body to the rostrum which has been prepared. The following program will then be observed: placing the colors; playing to colors; placing a wreath on a memorial shaft by a member of the Legion troop of the Boy Scouts; invocation by the Rev. Harry E. Owings, pastor of the First Baptist church; address by Judge H. G. Ames; period of silence in honor of departed comrades; salute to the dead by the firing squad; taps; benediction.

'Y' SECRETARY TO TALK ABOUT ASIA AND EAST

In the Methodist Episcopal church chapel in Santa Ana on Monday evening at 7:30, under the auspices of the Santa Ana Council of International Relations, George Gleason will speak on the subject of "Asia and the East Up to Date."

Mr. Gleason is a student of world affairs. He graduated from Harvard University and became a traveling student secretary for the International committee of the Y. M. C. A. shortly after graduation.

For 18 years he was general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Osaka, Japan. He was in Siberia during the Russo-Japanese war, and in co-operation with four other "Y" secretaries worked out the principles of the work with troops which was employed by all the welfare organizations during the war.

He acted as interpreter for the Japanese delegation during the disarmament conference in 1921 at its request, meeting the group in Seattle and traveling with it to Washington. He has just returned from a trip around the world, visiting the points of interest and activity and coming with a message up to the moment. At present he is associate general secretary of the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A. and has been in that relationship for a number of years. He is author of the book "What Shall We Think of Japan?" The meeting is open to the public. All are invited.

NOW LISTEN TO THIS
LIVINGSTON, Texas.—Fish are well accommodated around this city. State Game Warden J. L. Pye walked in on the camp of three men and spied a sack of fish which he thought were caught illegally with a net. "Where did you get these fish?" he asked. "What fish?" the men asked. "We never saw them before." "I suppose they hopped in the sack without you knowing it," the warden shot back. The men admitted that that was the only way the fish could have got there, but they had a hard time convincing a judge.

Dr. Warner Lauds 40 et 8 For Aid To Scout Affair

In commenting today on the Boy Scout Jamboree which will be held tomorrow night in the Olive street bowl, Dr. George Warner, pastor of the First Methodist church, spoke as follows:

"The Boy Scout Jamboree announcement always causes us to visualize the Forty and Eight of the American Legion. This group of each year sponsors this great Scout Fiesta. Our congratulations are to them for this type of community service. This manifest interest in boy life is to be greatly commended. The program this year will be free from any objectionable features. It will be filled with interesting and entertaining to all who can attend. The Forty and Eight are transforming the perils of their war service into a spirit of community helpfulness that is most commendable. Some one has recently said that the way to the millennium is through the heart of the child. Our support of this scout program should be community wide."

KIWANIS CLUB HONORS CIVIL WAR VETERANS

The Kiwanis club honored 16 Civil war veterans at its annual Memorial day program yesterday at Ketter's cafe. The youngest member present was 83 and the oldest was 93. The Cozad drum corps, whose members are Cozad, H. W. Cozad, W. J. Cozad and A. Wagner rolled the drums and played the fife to recall Civil war marching music and entertainment.

One of the drums was carried in the battle of Vicksburg by A. H. Perkes, of New York, who was wounded and lived until 1927 to relate his experience.

The comrades present at the gathering were, J. H. Brown, H. E. Smith, M. N. Fuller, W. J. Llesier, M. Vontana, G. B. Lammie, Hiram Cleveland, P. J. Spencer, F. M. Grisby, Daniel Holbrook, W. H. Young, Frank Klatt, Geo. D. Campbell, G. W. Spencer, John H. Thompson, Captain Hall.

Judge J. B. Tucker spoke words of commendation for the services performed by the veterans on behalf of the Union and called to the attention of his audience the great work of law enforcement that is the outstanding problem of the present day. Judge Tucker blamed the fast changing mode of living and modern inventions for the unsettled state of human affairs. In material wealth this nation has grown far beyond the dreams of the men of the Civil war days but in the matter of law enforcement, in the matter of electing the best men to public office, the country seems to have slipped backward, he said. To again bring about a high respect for law, for the courts, and for the officers of the court is the problem of the present day, he declared.

When a Moor swears by his beard he may be trusted to keep his word.

JURY PANEL IS DISMISSED AS ATTORNEY ERRS

Questions asked by the attorney for the plaintiffs during examination of prospective jurors yesterday before Judge James L. Allen were regarded by the court as prejudicial error, and on a motion by the defendant's attorneys the court declared a mistrial in a damage action brought against Fred Gunther Jr. by Drs. John and Zoe M. Bulpitt. The jury panel was dismissed and a special venire of 25 persons was ordered from which the jury was selected yesterday afternoon and the trial started.

Judgment for a total of $549.50 is asked by the plaintiffs. Of this amount $750 is for loss of income of Dr. Zoe Bulpitt during the time she was incapacitated from her professional duties, it being stated in the complaint that her earnings were approximately $1500 a month.

The suit is based on a collision in Olive on May 4, 1930, in which Mrs. Bulpitt was injured.

Members of the jury selected from the special venire after five had been excused during the examination are: Roy Graham, Mattie B. Chapman, W. H. Showalter, Russ Hooker, Elizabeth M. Erickson, Mrs. J. W. Law, C. M. Smith, Laura E. Douglas, R. N. Law, A. R. Mahr, Josie Edwards and G. B. Sheridan.

The prejudicial error was made while the plaintiffs' attorney was asking prospective jurors concerning insurance company interests, it is reported.

GONZALES FOUND GUILTY BY JURY

A verdict of guilty on a count of second degree burglary and not guilty on a second count of attempt to commit robbery was brought in at 9:25 o'clock last night by the jury which heard evidence yesterday in the court of Judge H. G. Ames during the trial of E. Gonzales.

Gonzales, it was charged, entered the room of Jacoba Vinoya in the same house where he roomed, on March 31, and attempted to take her purse, which she testified contained $80, but was caught by the woman before he got away. The prisoner wrote a letter to officers in connection with the case which was introduced during the trial in which he claimed he was a deserter from the navy and that he was drunk the night of the burglary and thought he was in his own room.

Judge Ames set May 29 as the date for pronouncing judgment.

LAGUNA BEACH VOTERS DEFEAT DISTRICT PLAN

LAGUNA BEACH, May 28.—Voters failed to approve formation of a high school district of the Laguna school district Wednesday, defeating the project in a vote of 239 against to 217 favorable. Confusion as to the purposes of the election is attributed by proponents as one of the principal reasons for failure to continue the project initiated several months ago, though a stiff campaign was made against it.

The proposition before the voters was that of forming the district. In the event of success, two courses were open. Superintendent of Schools Ray Adkinson advised interested people here. One was to establish a high school within the district, the other to contract with an adjacent district to send students.

Husband Draws Six Months After Threat With Gun

LAGUNA BEACH, May 28.—Henry Marshall, 36-year-old cafe owner of Inglewood, found that scaring his wife was not so simple a matter as it appeared. The result of his attempt was to appear before Justice C. C. Cravath to explain how it happened that he had a gun in his possession. Incidentally, his wife disarmed him very early in his asserted attempt to frighten her. He was sentenced to spend six months in jail on charges of possession of liquor, being drunk and disorderly conduct.

As related to Justice Cravath by Marshall, he had been drinking for several days following his wife's leaving him. She came to Laguna Beach. He followed her, showed the gun and she took the threat seriously enough to call the police. Under questioning by Cravath, he admitted having purchased the weapon about a week ago. He also admitted having on previous occasions threatened her life in an effort to frighten her. Though first denying it, he later confessed that he had been in jail in Stockton charged with burglary being released on probation.

GOETZ IS GIVEN 14 MONTHS AND FINE OF $2000

One of the stiffest sentences ever meted out to a Santa Ana bootlegger was given J. A. Goetz, service station proprietor of 2701 South Main street, when Justice Kenneth Morrison sentenced him to serve 14 months in the county jail and pay a fine of $2000.

Rudy Goetz, son of J. A. Goetz, arrested Tuesday on a warrant from the police court in connection with the city case, gained his freedom in police court earlier today when the case against him was ordered dismissed by the city attorney. The city case against the elder Goetz will be trial this afternoon by a jury.

Through his attorney, Goetz gave oral notice of appeal, but later withdrew the notice.

More than 50 members of the Exchange club and their wives attended a steak bake and dance held last night at Irvine park. Stanley Clem, assisted by Merle Morris, was in charge of the "eat" committee. The club furnished its own music for the dinner hour program. Following the dinner, the group adjourned to the pavilion, where dancing was enjoyed.

At the regular club meeting held Tuesday noon in the Santa Ana cafe, Mrs. Golden Weston, of the Americanization department of city schools, was in charge of the program. She introduced Grace E. Reeves music teacher, who presented a chorus of Mexican girls who sang a group of numbers.

Puncture Artist Busy At Anaheim

The sheriff's office today was making an investigation of a report that some one in or near Anaheim for the past 11 days deliberately had punctured tires on automobile in a section of the county near the city limits. Twenty-six punctures have been reported in the past 11 days, a report shows.

The punctures all are made with the same kind of a sharp instrument, probably an ice pick, it was reported.

Consider your Adam's Apple!! Don't Rasp Your Throat With Harsh Irritants

"REACH FOR A LUCKY INSTEAD"

Eve started it and the daughters of Eve inherited it. Eve gave Adam the apple, and it seems that Adam must have passed it on. For every man and every woman has an Adam's Apple. Put your finger on your Adam's Apple—that is your larynx, your voice box—it contains your vocal chords. Consider your Adam's Apple—when you do so, you are considering your throat—your vocal chords. Don't rasp your throat with harsh irritants. Reach for a LUCKY instead. Here in America LUCKY STRIKE is the only cigarette which brings you the added benefit of the exclusive "TOASTING" Process, which includes the use of modern Ultra Violet Rays. It is this exclusive process that expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos. These expelled irritants are sold to manufacturers of chemical compounds. They are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. And so we say "Consider your Adam's Apple."

The executive committee, under the direction of W. K. Hillyard, county surveyor, has announced a following tentative challenges and schedule of events:

County Librarian Margaret Livingston and her girls have challenged County Recorder Justine Whitney and her crew to a tug-of-war.

County Assessor James Sleeper and Coroner Charles Brown have challenged any pair to a Hula dancing contest.

The road department has issued a challenge to all other departments combined for a championship indoor baseball game.

Frank Wheeler and Willis Wood, of the county yard, have made a general challenge in connection with horseshoe pitching. A tournament may be arranged in this event if sufficient interest is developed.

Lester Slaback, court reporter, is arranging a schedule of contests for the children and prizes will be offered to winners.

Sheriff Logan Jackson has promised to give an exhibition of toe dancing.

One of the features of the day will be the initiation of new county officials into the organization, and impressive ceremonies have been arranged for this event.

Court Notes

Emma G. Otis is plaintiff in an action seeking foreclosure of a mortgage on a lot in Fruit's addition to Santa Ana, which was put up as security on a note for $5000. Defendants are Marie L. Wendel and others.

Petition for letters of administration in connection with the estate of Lucetta McDonald has been filed with County Clerk J. M. Backs by R. R. McDonald.

Asking that his wife be compelled to reconvey title to certain property to him, suit has been filed in superior court by William F. Dumke against Hattie Dumke. The complaint states that title was conveyed to the defendant at her request in 1926 under a contract wherein she agreed to return title if the plaintiff recovered his health and returned to make his home with her, but that she now refuses to do so although the conditions of the contract have been fulfilled.

Cruel and inhuman treatment is the charge brought against Charles E. Thamer in a divorce complaint which has been filed by Mary Jane Thamer. They were married in 1927, separated last week, and have two children. One instance cited by the plaintiff in substantiation of her charges is that last March while there were guests in the home the defendant became angry, swore at the plaintiff and pulled the table cloth with dishes placed on the table to the floor.

The Bishop of London receives a salary of about $50,000 a year.

WILLIAM NENNO SEEKS DIVORCE

A cross-complaint to the suit filed May 1 by Margaret Nanno, asking separate maintenance, was filed yesterday in superior court by William F. Nanno, the defendant, in which he asks a divorce.

Nanno charges his wife in the cross-complaint with "extreme cruelty." He asserts he is 70 years old and alone and that he desired companionship and company and someone to look after him in his old age and that he married Mrs. Nanno at Yuma, Ariz., last February. The complaint states that one week after their marriage the wife began asking for some of his money and after he did not give her as much as she asked for she complained of his dress and manner of eating, often left him alone, upbraided and humiliated him and told her friends she got stung when she married him.

They separated one month and 14 days after the wedding.

Mrs. Nanno asked $200 monthly in her maintenance action.

The Public Forum

Santa Ana, California,
May 27, 1931.

To the Editor of The Register:
A very recent newsreel, made by the Fox Movietone News, and released by one of the local theaters, causes me to rise up in defense of the youth of America.

The newsreel shows a party of week-end pleasure seekers leaving New York Harbor and then out past the twelve-mile limit. It is needless to say just what took place out beyond the twelve-mile limit.

The part of the newsreel that interested me the most, were the people who made up this party. Not they were not the dashing youth of America, who are ridiculed and reprimanded for their wild parties, but instead, the middle-aged group—the very group that do the ridiculing and the reprimanding.

I dare say that there are few American youths who would take part in such a week-end party and have their actions recorded by a newsreel so that the eyes of the world might look upon them with disgust.

If the American public must take part in such week-end parties then why take pictures of it so that the youth of America may follow the example?

Yours truly,
ROY WHEELER.

REFITTING OLD IRONSIDES

"Aye, tear her tattered ensign down—" but they didn't, because thousands of school children all over the country contributed their nickels and dimes to save gallant Old Ironsides, shown below, as the first sail was being raised at the Boston navy yard where she is being reconstructed. The 134-year-old frigate—U. S. Constitution—is being reconstructed rapidly, and it is hoped that by July she will be shipshape.

HONOR PUPILS STAGE BANQUET FRIDAY NIGHT

HUNTINGTON BEACH, May 28.—Marking the closing days of the high school term, a number of functions are planned for the graduates. The distinguished service banquet will be held Friday night. One hundred and twenty students have performed some special service, won some honor, that entitles them a place at the banquet. The board of education and faculty members will attend. Professor Miner will be toastmaster.

The banquet this year will have for its motive "Aspiration." Beautiful decorations will be used in shades of orange and black, the school colors, and the idea of "aspiration" and the triumph of those who have aspired and won will be fittingly portrayed throughout the evening.

There are four "seal bearers" this year students who have been in the California Scholarship society for six semesters of the high school course and are rewarded with life memberships in the state society, and presented with the life membership pins, which may be worn at every college and university in the world, even by freshmen, a distinction not accorded any other pin or emblem. Seal bearers are Kenneth Patrick, Velma Wentzel, Charles Anderson and Ruth Hammon.

Silhouettes of the 14 students who have best served their school in the past year and have thus earned most distinction and more than one right to attend the distinguished service banquet, will be hung in the banquet hall and their names called on the roll of honor. Vivian Reeves, who won double honors at the county high school commercial contests, leads with six services entitling her to the banquet. Kenneth Patrick and Fred Brooks are tied for second place with five each.

Pearl Broedlove for her work on the leather purse submitted in state competition won the scholarship in the Berland art studio of Los Angeles.

The Rev. J. G. Hurst, pastor of the First Christian church, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon, Sunday night, June 7, at the high school auditorium. The Rev. Luther A. Arthur, of the Baptist church, and the Rev. John M. Barnhart, of the Methodist church will assist at the services. All other religious services in the churches will be dispensed with for the evening and there will be the union service open to everyone at the high school auditorium. A class of 33 seniors is expected to receive diplomas at graduation exercises to be held at the school auditorium the night of June 12.

The address of the evening to the graduates will be delivered by Dr. Daniel F. Fox, pastor of the First Congregational church of Pasadena. Kenneth Patrick will deliver the valedictory and Velma Wentzel will be salutatorian. M. G. Jones, head of the school, will present the graduating class to the board of education, and some member of the board will pass out the diplomas.

NEWPORT BAY WORK OUTLINED IN CLUB TALK

NEWPORT BEACH, May 28.—Harry J. Bauer, attorney, yachtman and capitalist, talked to the Exchange club at the weekly meeting and luncheon at the Newport Yacht club Wednesday noon. Bauer is making his summer home at Newport six months out of the year and he stated that he expected eventually to make Newport his all-year home.

His address to the Exchange club was on "What Can We Do For the Upbuilding of the City." He recited the story of the Los Angeles harbor committee of 209, a committee that is given credit for obtaining Los Angeles harbor.

He suggested the formation of a committee for Newport Beach to be thoroughly representative, not too large, but composed of citizens who are in position to work for the city without selfish interests.

"First, we must have a definite plan to work on," he said. "Our first duty is to our own inhabitants and taxpayers. Keep in mind the home people first. Let our prime motive in our plans be to bring home builders and yachtmen to our city to live. Dredge the mud from our bay. Advertising pays. Advertise our city so that people will want to build homes here and yachtmen will want to make this bay their permanent anchorage. When our harbor and bay get where the big yachts can come in, this business will be important. One yacht of the larger type would support a grocery store during its stay in the bay. I tell you a policy that will bring homebuilders and boat owners is the best policy."

Bauer said he wondered if too many week end celebrations paid for the trouble and expense they cost. He mentioned the Tournament of Lights as an entertainment that drew enormous crowds. He specifically stated he was not opposed to the tournament of lights, that he always entered his yacht, but he wondered if it was actually profitable.

Among the speakers who thanked Bauer and who took occasion to state that the tournament of lights was beneficial were G. C. Macleod, E. I. Moore, L. W. Briggs and H. L. Sherman. Mr. Macleod, secretary of the chamber of commerce, said that that organization had been getting away from too much of the week end entertainment business and was broadening out along the lines discussed, but that the tournament of lights was not of that type but rather of a type of program which brought advertising. He said under no circumstances would he approve of discontinuing such an event and that it had proven itself profitable in many ways.

The Exchange club voted to withdraw from the national organization luncheon club devoted to the best interests of the community and for the pleasure and exchange of ideas of the members.

The president named the following committee to draft a constitution.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE - WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes these good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel up and up. They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. —Ad.

SCOUTERS HEAR ARMY MAN TALK

Albert Morcy von Vadaszules, ex-leutenant of the Hungarian army and international secretary of Boy Scout organizations, was the featured speaker at the regular meeting of the Scouters' round table held Tuesday night in American Legion hall in Orange. He is an ex-pilot in the Hungarian army, is now in the German army and is in the United States studying aerial photography.

He spoke to the group on the differences between scouting in America and in the old country. In Europe, he declared, the scouts activities are under direct supervision of military authorities and the scouts are more like policemen. They are not sponsored by church and service organizations as they are here, he declared.

SLICED DRIVE SAVED BOY

NEENAH, Wis. — When Lester Smith grows up and perhaps turns golfer, he will still respect the sliced drive. Lester recently was blown out into Lake Winnebago on a frail raft. His cries were not heard until a golfer sliced his ball to the lake shore and heard Lester's calls.

Romantic Story of the Hamburger Kings

The flying chariot of a hamburger king. . . . Walter Anderson flies all over the country to visit his hamburger shops in this plane.

SCATTERED from the middle of the nation eastward to the Atlantic coast are 116 white enamel brick buildings, emblazoned upon each of which is a sign that reads, "Hamburgers, 5 cents." Built to resemble miniature European castles, these buildings are known as "White Castles," and the name of the company under whose ownership they are operated is The White Castle System of Eating Houses Corporation.

How this business has been built in 10 years from the first lone cement block building in Wichita, Kan., to the 116 castles in 16 cities of 11 states, which served the American public 23,456,827 hamburger sandwiches in 1930, is a romantic story of business achievement.

It is a story of "glorifying the hamburger"—and also the humble five-cent piece; of two men who refused to surrender the idea that their vision was well founded and carried on to unquestionable success in a field that was heretofore untied.

Although the first hamburger shop to be known as a White Castle was not opened until early in 1921, the history of the White Castle System actually dates from October 16, 1916, when Walt Anderson started his "five-cent hamburger business" at Meade and Douglas Avenues in Wichita in a remodeled street car that once had seen service behind a span of mules in the days before electric cars came into use.

Mr. Anderson had owned or operated eight restaurants of his own in Wichita and other cities and had worked as a chef in many other eating houses in the Middle West. While working in a hamburger stand just across the street from the location of his first individual venture, he developed a new method of preparing the hamburger sandwich which met with immediate approval. With this development was born the conviction that a business specializing in this particular item of food offered a real opportunity, and he began to dream of and plan for such a business of his own.

ACROSS the street from where he worked was a shoe shop, housed in this remodeled street car. The proprietor was willing to sell for $60. But at that particular time the price might as well have been $6000 as far as Mr. Anderson was concerned, as his weekly wages were not high.

If ready money was lacking, determination was not, however, and he refused to give up his dream. People with money were slow in seeing the possibilities in a hamburger stand, and for weeks Mr. Anderson sought to raise the small sum necessary to make the purchase.

The money finally was obtained and he set about preparing the old car for business. He built a counter down the middle and installed three stools for customers. He had money enough to buy a flat piece of iron for a griddle but not enough money to pay to have its edges curled; so, for some time after he opened for business, there was nothing to do but let the surplus grease drip onto the floor.

The first day's receipts totalled $3.75. But the public immediately responded to this new product, tastier and fresher than the average restaurant hamburger of that day; and today the average daily receipts of the company are about $5000—more than 1500 times that of the opening day.

"From the start," explained Mr. Anderson, "it was a definite ruling to provide the best of meat and the freshest of buns and to keep everything in the stand as clean as possible. This policy of quality and cleanliness, combined with quick and courteous service, has always been insisted upon and the growth of the business proves that the public responds to continued and honest efforts along these lines."

As the business prospered, Mr. Anderson began to consider expanding in keeping with his dream of a chain of popular hamburger shops. Two attempts to build second stands failed, but in 1920, he opened two more successful places in Wichita.

IN seeking other locations Mr. Anderson made the acquaintance of E. W. Ingram, at that time a well-known Wichita real estate and insurance man. Out of their association grew a decision to form a partnership for the continued expansion of the hamburger stand idea.

A lease was obtained at 110 West First Street and, upon Mr. Ingram's suggestion, the name "White Castle" was selected. The building was designed with turrets and a tower, in keeping with the castle idea, and became the first White Castle of the 116 that now dot the country.

The progress of the company in the early days of its history was slow, but was highly profitable from the standpoint of the experience that was being gained to guide the men in future activities.

Operations in Omaha were started by the company in 1923, the venture proving successful and the end of the year seeing three more castles doing business there.

Before going into further expansion, it was decided to incorporate and, in January, 1924, The White Castle System of Eating Houses Corporation was organized, with Mr. Anderson as president and Mr. Ingram as vice president and treasurer. Then, as now, they retained equal shares of stock, with only three or four other shares outstanding for organization purposes.

Cement blocks were used in the construction of White Castles until 1925, when the first white enamel brick building was put up in St. Louis. Since then, this type has been developed until the 1930 white enamel brick castles are structures of rare neatness and cleanliness in appearance and models of efficiency in arrangement, the latest types being built with basements to house electrical refrigeration and heating and cooling equipment and to give added space on the ground floor.

THE latest structural development is an all-metal building with steel enamel exterior to imitate marble, portable, yet more durable than the brick and containing many other advantages. The interiors of the modern buildings are lined with white enamel walls, with fixtures also of white enamel. The arrangement of these fixtures is such that a single operator working behind the counter can serve scores of patrons quickly and efficiently.

The 116 White Castles now operated by the system are located in Wichita, Omaha, Kansas City, St. Louis, East St. Louis, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Cincinnati, Covington, Louisville, Indianapolis, Columbus, Detroit, Chicago, New York and Newark. Each metropolitan area is called a plant and is in charge of a manager with from one to four assistants, under whose supervision all local activities are conducted.

Mr. Anderson was born November 26, 1880, on a farm near the town of St. Mary's, Kan. His father, Alexander Anderson, and his mother had migrated there from Sweden following the Civil War and had homesteaded the farm upon which Walter and his four brothers were born. In 1890, the family moved to a farm near Eureka, Kan.

Following his graduation from grade school the future hamburger king attended a business college at Sedalia, Mo. At the age of 20 he decided to acquire more schooling, and, with $2.25 in his pocket, went to Baldwin, Kan., to enroll as a student in the preparatory school of Baker University there. As his only income was that derived from working at odd times as an assistant to the school janitor at 10 cents an hour, he was faced with a real problem of financing.

He found an empty two-story house, in run-down condition, which he rented but for which he never paid any rent.

"After giving me permission to live in that old house, nobody ever came around to collect the rent," he said. "It was just as well. The house wasn't worth much rent and I probably would have had a hard time digging up what little it was worth."

The youth fitted up two upstairs rooms at practically no cost.

IPICKED up a castoff spring cot and somebody gave me a mattress which I filled with hay," he recalled. "In some manner I got a gasoline stove for cooking. I had no method of heating the place. What furniture I needed, in the way of tables and shelves for my books, I made out of dry goods and cracker boxes."

All that year he lived in this house, spending from 75 cents to one dollar a week for food. His meals, which he prepared himself, all consisted of eggs, bread and coffee, whether he called them breakfast, lunch or dinner.

"I got along fine," he smiled. "The only time it was really tough was when one of those Kansas blizzards would whip across the plains and the temperature inside that unheated house would drop to less than nothing. Twice during that winter it got so cold at night that I had to get out of bed and, with all my clothes on, jump up and down and beat my sides with my arms to keep from freezing. Those were long nights—for sleep or rest under such conditions, of course, was impossible."

He did not return to school the next year, but soon afterwards picked up a job at Great Bend, Kan., washing dishes for the Green Hotel for $3.00 a week.

"Up to that time," he explained, "I had no intention of going into the eating business. However, it was necessary for me to fill in as the second cook a couple of times and finally I was given that job permanently. Since that time, with the exception of a few months, I have been in some phase of the restaurant or eating business."

AFTER a few years of wandering about at various cooking jobs, my father sent me and started me in a restaurant of my own in Marquette, Kan. Because of my wandering instincts and the fact that I never stayed long in one place, my parents considered me the black sheep of the family and the action of my father in setting me up in business was an effort to remove this stigma."

This was in 1905. Some time later, a stage show came to Marquette and the appeal of the road gripped the young restaurant proprietor. He left his restaurant and organized with his own, with a cast of 13 persons, including the orchestra.

"I soon learned that I knew nothing about the show game," he admitted, "and three weeks after starting this venture the show went on the rocks and I caught a freight to Topeka where I got a job cooking in a hotel."

Soon afterwards he went to work for the Southern Pacific Railroad eating house system in Nevada, and for several years he stayed in the west. He was married in Salt Lake City in 1908 and three years later moved to Wichita, where he has lived ever since.

After moving to Wichita, and before he opened his first hamburger stand in 1916, Mr. Anderson owned and operated eight different restaurants, in addition to being employed in others as a cook. He left the eating business for a few months in 1915 to sell hail insurance, which, besides his three-week fling at the show game, has been his only departure from his chosen line since his first dishwashing job in Great Bend.

Mr. Anderson is an amateur aviator of considerable skill, and the Verville cabin monoplane which he now pilots is known in airports from Wichita eastward to the Atlantic coast, particularly in those cities in which the White Castle System operates. His present plane is the fourth he has owned.

(Copyright, 1931, by EveryWeek Magazine—Printed in U. S. A.)

"MY first ambition to fly came years ago when I saw Lincoln Beachy fly," recalled Mr. Anderson, "and always after that I read everything I could find about aviation."

"At the time Beachy was in Salt Lake City, Thomas A. Edison also was there. In a newspaper interview he made six predictions as to what aviation would accomplish in the next 20 years. I memorized those predictions and can repeat them today."

The predictions Mr. Anderson recalls Mr. Edison made were: the average speed of airplanes would be 200 miles an hour; planes would circle the globe in one week; planes would cross the American continent in 18 hours; the monoplane would be the speediest type of ship; other types would be used for freight and heavier service.

Many years after he first got a desire to fly, Mr. Anderson decided he was financially able to achieve his ambition. Believing an airplane would be useful in his business, he bought a Travel Air biplane in October, 1928. At that time he had not taken a single flying lesson. Two months later he made his first solo flight.

His original plane has been followed by two other Travel Air biplanes and his present monoplane, which he bought in February, 1930. He uses the plane regularly in visiting the various cities where his restaurants operate. In December, 1930, he flew from Wichita to St. Louis in two hours and fifty minutes, a trip that the regular transports schedule at four hours.

"Of course, I had the advantage of a good tail wind," he explained.

MR. INGRAM, the other partner, was born above the timber line in Leadville, Colo., on December 28, 1880. The house consisted of two rooms, each nine by nine feet. It was built of log slabs and roofed with tin cans.

"The Leadville boom days were at their height then," said Mr. Ingram, "and the gold rush in that part of the country was in full swing. My father, Charles W. Ingram, who worked in the government assayer's office in Leadville, was the only man, outside of the preacher, who didn't carry a gun."

Some time after his birth, the family moved to the San Luis Valley of Colorado, and, when he was four years old, the family moved to Omaha, where the father became an assistant in the land department of the Union Pacific Railroad.

"My father later became interested in the St. Joseph & Grand Island Railroad," Mr. Ingram continued, "which gave promise of great things. However, it suffered reverses and, upon its being thrown into a receivership, my father lost everything he had except an interest in a hand laundry in St. Joseph, Mo."

Edgar went to St. Joseph with his father to help run this laundry, while Mrs. Ingram and a brother and sister stayed in Omaha.

After graduating from high school, the young man went to Omaha and became a newspaper reporter. He left this field a few years later to work for the R. G. Dun Company, and in 1908 he moved to Wichita and went into the insurance and real estate business on his own. He stayed with his own business until he entered partnership with Mr. Anderson in the selling of hamburger sandwiches.

HANGING on the wall of Mr. Ingram's office, where they are always in view of both himself and Mr. Anderson, are the pictures of approximately 300 men—men who have been on the payroll of the company for six months or longer. Among the pictures is that of L. M. Shackelford, who, five years after he stepped behind the counter as an operator, was in charge of all the company's activities in New York City. Here, too, is found the likeness of H. R. Lewis, who started frying hamburgers in 1922 and who since has opened and managed company's plants in Omaha, St. Louis and Chicago.

As one looks over these faces, he learns similar interesting stories about these men whose development and progress is taken as the true criterion of success by "Walt and Billy." Of the fourteen plant managers, few have passed the 30-year mark.

Hundreds Attend Exhibit At Intermediate School

PARENTS VIEW WORK OF GRADE SCHOOL PUPILS

ORANGE, May 28.—Hundreds of parents and interested friends of pupils of the Intermediate school visited the school house yesterday to view the annual exhibition of works of art, handicraft, domestic science, penmanship and many other exhibits that featured the display. Students from the sixth, seventh and eighth grades had entries in the exhibit.

In the geography and history sections the pupils had formed unusual and original exhibits, consisting of maps of the United States.

Some of the pupils, in an humorous vein, had depicted Illinois by means of a drawing of a smoking revolver, Tennessee by means of a still, etc.

Art department displays consisted of compositions of all types. One of particular interest was the story of the pined pipe of Hamelin which was formed by making a series of colored scenes with an inscription at the bottom of each. Another interesting feature of the art display was a number of miniature clay animals, fashioned of clay which were colored and glazed.

The manual arts display perhaps attracted more attention than any other single display. Pupils of the school, even with their limited equipment, are able to make entire lathes for turning wood, electric push-pull motors, book ends cast of metal, lamp standards of metal with a figure in bas-relief at the base, model airplanes, rail boats and numerous other articles.

Pupils in the science department exhibited numerous displays on natural history, collections of insects, flowers, sea shells, butterflies, and similar subjects.

Posters made by the art students were lettered with slogans that called attention to health habits, religion, character building and kindred subjects. Penmanship students had prepared a display of regular class work and fancy pictures drawn in pen and ink.

English students exhibited compositions in beautifully bound folders. Essays were written on every conceivable subject, from poetry to the compositions directed against tobacco, liquor and drug habits. Teachers whose pupils' work was on display were Florence McCoy, seventh and eighth grade English instructor; Mrs. Calvin Lester, sixth grade English instructor; Bertha Schmidt, grammar teacher for the seventh and eighth grades; Iva May Yordy, teacher of the art classes of the seventh and eighth grades; Agnes Shambaugh, sixth grade art teacher; Louise Bradshaw, general science instructor; Mabel Lush, social science teacher; John Minter, social science teacher; Alma Bode, penmanship teacher; Harvey Emely, arithmetic instructor, and C. I. Thomas, head of the manual arts department and principal of the school.

JITNEY LINE IS RECALLED BY RESIDENTS

ORANGE, May 28.—"Orange, Orange, going right over, hop right in," is a cry that still echoes in the ears of many of the old residents of Orange and Santa Ana as they recall the time when Christ August Habener, who passed away last week, declared to be the originator of the jitney bus in the United States, operated his jitney between Orange and Santa Ana in competition to the old "Dummy," as the gasoline motored street car was called that ran between Santa Ana and La Brea and Main streets, north of Santa Ana.

In 1910 Habener first conceived the idea of operating a bus between the "Dummy" stop and Orange, the thought having originated by hearing of the many complaints of passengers who were forced to walk from La Brea and Main streets into Orange. Five cents was the fee charged for taking a passenger from the stop to Orange but an additional gain in profits was obtained when he originated the idea of charging for advertising space on the sides of his car.

An interesting fact is that Habener paid a license fee of $1 per year for operating the jitney for many years. The business proved to be so profitable that soon his son, Bill Habener, was taken into the firm and another car was added to the run. Instead of running just between La Brea and Orange, the run was extended until passengers were carried between Santa Ana and Orange.

This venture proved to be so successful that a third car was taken into the firm and was operated by Habener's son-in-law, V. E. Hammond, who now lives in Anaheim. Habener left the business in the hands of Bill Habener and Hammond, who organized what was known as the Star line. Competition with the street car company was keen and when the Crown stage line was inaugurated, it proved to be the straw that broke the camel's back, and the Star line became extinct.

Habener purchased six acres of bare land on West Chapman street, where he built his home and set out orange trees. Mrs. Habener still lives in the family home. Habener lived in Orange for 21 years.

He came to the United States from Germany in 1884, settling first in Wisconsin and later in North Dakota, where he had a 1280-acre ranch.

In 1908 Mr. and Mrs. Habener and the children came to California, settling in the San Joaquin valley, where they lived until 1910, when they moved to Orange.

Taking Care of the Ship for 45 Years!

WHEN a student pilot is learning to fly an airplane the whole system of instruction is based upon teaching him how to take care of himself in all possible situations. The well trained pilot is ALWAYS ready to protect his passengers, his ship and himself. The same principle dominates the mariner of a ship at sea.

The men of the First National Bank have been and ARE real PILOTS!

They steer the bank in a "liquid" course. The bank's assets are all of the kind that are saleable at any moment—high class bonds, and commercial paper that the Federal Reserve Bank will re-discount and pay us cash for. The loans of the First National are to home people we know—we have no money tied up in speculative loans. And we carry a tremendous quantity of cash on hand.

THE FIRST NATIONAL COULD PAY ALL OF IT'S TEN THOUSAND DEPOSITORS ALL OF THEIR MONEY AT ANY TIME WITH VERY LITTLE NOTICE!

This ship has been in the hands of capable proven PILOTS for 45 years this June! Today's President, A. J. Cruickshank, was Assistant Cashier on that opening day in June, 1886. The officers and directors are all men who have succeeded conspicuously in business right here, and their success in guiding the First National Bank is outstanding in banking history.

The bank has progressed at the hands of its pilots. The deposits on the opening day in June, 1886, totaled the vast and staggering sum of $1,350! Today, the average transactions of the First National run OVER A MILLION DOLLARS A DAY, day in and day out!

The bank has no outside alliances whose varying fortunes might affect its stability or the welfare of the community. We are free to devote ourselves entirely to the fortunes of our own community and our community is absolutely SOUND.

People are talking—worried. "My money isn't safe here, there or anywhere."

YOUR MONEY IS SAFE IN SANTA ANA. BUT CHOOSE A GOOD PILOT!

EXPECT STRONG TEAM IN DUAL MEETS FOR '32

LEAGUE RECONSIDERS SAINT GRID SCHEDULE TOMORROW

Coast Preparatory league officials, principals and physical education department heads held a football huddle of their own tomorrow but it will be for the purpose of straightening out an unsatisfactory schedule rather than for the promotion of touchdowns. Meeting at San Diego high school at 11 a. m., the group will hear the complaints of Santa Ana, Fullerton and Pasadena over the 1931 football program, adopted at a previous league meeting. Election of officers for 1931-32 and routine business also is scheduled. Santa Ana will ask that the schedule be altered so that its football team will not have to play Long Beach Poly and San Diego, the two largest schools in the conference, on successive Saturdays. Fullerton is expected to request the league to cancel all its athletic relations with San Diego with which the Orange county institution has been at odds since 1924. It has been reported that Fullerton might even present its resignation from the circuit, feeling that the other schools are too large. The nature of Pasadena's intended complaint is not known.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

The hint that ball players on other clubs in the Texas league may be out to "get" Dizzy Dean, flannel-mouthed young pitcher sent to Houston by the Cardinals, is publicized by "Andy" in the Houston Press. . . . the other day Al Todd, catcher for Dallas, swung a haymaker on Dizzy's jaw after Dizzy had batted a fast one close to his tonsil. . . . Since going to Houston, Dizzy has been getting all kinds of praise for his splendid pitching, and Andy thinks the other boys may be getting a bit jealous. . . . Dizzy didn't have a chance to mix it with the Dallas catcher, according to Andy. . . . Todd's wallop floored him unexpectedly. Dizzy expecting the young man to argue vigorously, but not to let one go. . . . Andy predicts that before the season ends, Dizzy will make Mr. Todd "like it," even if he didn't get a chance to retaliate after the knockdown. . . .

CRITICS THINK McLARNIN ON WAY TO THRONE OF WELTERS

BY DIXON STEWART

(United Press Staff Correspondent) NEW YORK, May 28.—(UP)—With Billy Petrolle, "The Fargo Express," definitely sidetracked, Jimmy McLarnin today was well on the road toward the world's welterweight championship. Jackie Thompson, Negro titleholder, now remains as the sole barrier to the throne, and McLarnin earned the right to attempt to clear this final obstacle when he scored a decisive 10-round victory over Petrolle at Madison Square Garden last night. Petrolle, although eliminated from welterweight title consideration was far from disgraced in his test with McLarnin and his game stand may win him a lightweight championship bout against Tony Canzone. The Fargo, N. D., slugger made a determined fight against a man who is rated as one of the truly great ringmen of the day and won many new admirers by his courageous fight. There were no knockdowns, although the thrilling slugging exchanges which featured the previous bout, but McLarnin punished Petrolle severely and when the contest was over the game Little Fargo batter presented a sorry spectacle. He was so arm weary that it was an effort to raise his hands in acknowledgement of the ovation he received for his courageous stand, and so leg weary that he staggered in returning to his corner. He was bleeding from the nose and mouth and his face was badly swollen, with one eye almost shut. In winning, McLarnin returned to the clever boxing tactics with which he won fame as a flyweight and bantamweight long before he discovered that he had a punch which has won him ratings as "the greatest puncher, pound-for-pound, in the ring."

ANAHEIM NEXT ON SANTA ANA BASEBALL LIST

ANAHEIM is next on the Santa Ana Stars' calling list.

With a record of 11 successive victories in the National Night league to bolster their confidence, the bedtime baseball champions of Southern California invade the Valencia's ballpark tomorrow night. Every seat in the Anaheim park has been reserved, and that means some 1600 persons may be comfortably accommodated. Three hundred choice tickets go on sale at the Victor Walker sporting goods house here tomorrow at 8 a. m. and George Pace, Anaheim manager, sent word today that 400 more will be available under the first come, first served policy at the Anaheim box office before the game. Although neither Manager George Lackaye of Santa Ana nor Pace of Anaheim said so, it is understood that Joe Cornelius and "Fuzzy" Errington again will be assigned to pitch.

Stars Defeat Riverside There is a possibility, however, that Lackaye will cross up his opposition and use his smoke-ball specialist, Joe Ochoa, who was unofficially appointed to work against Riverside here last night but didn't see a single inning of service, Earl Morrill, No. 2 member of the staff, going the route instead. Santa Ana defeated Riverside, 13 to 10, in one of those things with just enough of a sandlot tinge to keep a big crowd in good spirits. The unexpected return to the lineup of Bill Cole, huge, colorful coach of the Stars, added zest to an exhibition spiced by a grand total of 27 basehits and 12 errors. Cole played the last four innings at second base and hit a pair of singles, completing the entire circuit after each one when Riverside started throwing the ball hither and yon. "Big Bill's" madcap tours, the second terminated by a "rolling slide" into home plate which had every appearance of a good backhand taking out an opposing end. Santa Ana iced the affair by assaulting young Chet Briggs, Riverside's starting gunner, for eight runs in the fifth inning. Leavitt Daley singled, stole second and third and went on home when Bill Hunter missed his catcher's throw to third. Hill doubled. Merrill sacrificed and was safe when Burgess threw the ball away. Hill scoring and Merrill going to second. Nelson singled savagely to right, Merrill scoring and Nelson sprinting clear to third on the throw in. Bell fanned but Ed Daley renewed the attack with a hard double to left to tally Nelson. Scott's single sent Ed Daley across. Wilcox walked and was forced at second by Morrill.

Enter Mr. Cole This was the point when Cole entered the arena as a pinch-hitter for Leavitt Daley. The big rascal boomed a single to right that scored both Scott and Wilcox, and Cole himself dashed madly around the pathways when Zikratoh let the ball get away from him. Hill mercifully grounded out to end the massacre of Briggs.

"Slim Jim" Duncan, Santa Ana's "little cousin," replaced Briggs in the sixth and the Stars got the rest of their runs off him. Hits by Scott, Cole, Hill and Merrill produced two tallies in the seventh and Bell's single, Ed Daley's sacrifice and

FIELD OF 25 LIKELY IN ENGLISH DERBY

LONDON, May 28.—(UP)—A field numbering some of the most promising three-year-olds turned out in recent seasons has been named for the derby at Epsom Downs next Wednesday.

The entry list closed with 32 still remaining, indicating a field of probably about 25 when a million excited spectators roar at the start of the world's greatest race. Leading the list as heavy favorite is John A. Dewar's Cameronian, winner of the two thousand guineas at Newmarket. The Aga Khan's Fomne D'Alpi was second choice, with Link Boy, Doctor Doolittle, Goyecosa, Revellion, Sir Andrew and Orpen close behind in the preliminary betting. America's hopes this year centered on Sir Andrew, owned by William Woodward and a half-brother of Gallant Fox, and Marshall Field's Jacopo.

TROJANS AND CARDS RENEW FEUD IN IC4A

Southern California is heavily favored to successfully defend its Intercollegiate A. A. A. track and field championship at Philadelphia Saturday, and Stanford, its Pacific slope rival, is counted on to finish a close second. So the Trojans and Cardinals are just renewing their 1931 dual meet feuds in a different setting, that's all. Both squads have swept everything before them this season, and each has stars either holding records, or imperiling existing marks. Some of the talent to compete includes: Upper row—Hec Dyer, Stanford, sprinter; Ernie Payne, U.S.C., captain and hurdler; Jim Stewart, U.S.C., high jump. Center row—"Podge" Smith, Stanford, captain and hurdler; Bob Jones, Stanford, discus thrower. Lower row—Vic Williams, U.S.C., quartermiler; Frank Wyckoff, U.S.C., sprint champion; Ben Eastman, Stanford, quartermiler.

TEN TEAMS IN WILLARD GRID TITLE SERIES

By JACK WALLACE

Two more games were played in Frances Willard junior high school's "Little Big Ten Conference" at Lincoln field Wednesday. The series has been so named because 10 teams, of 14 members each, are enrolled. Coach Arnold Lund referees the games but has left the coaching to last year's football lettermen.

Yesterday's games ended with a 13 to 6 victory for the "Illinois Indians" over "Wisconsin," and the "Boiler-makers" 13 to 0 win over "Ohio."

In the second play of the "Wisconsin-Illinois" game, Morris, flashy captain of the "Wisconsin" eleven, snagged a long pass sent by Moore, and ran 55 yards for a touchdown. They failed to convert but the "Illinois Indians" made up for the six-point edge in the last of second period when they cleverly worked out the old "dead man" play—Klepper to Hemphill—the latter crossing the goal line standing up. The score was tied 6 to 6.

During the next few plays "Wisconsin" had the ball most of the time but neither side gained nor lost much yardage. Early in the fourth quarter, Rodriguez broke away and sped down the field for the Indians' second touchdown. Klepper succeeded in converting. In the second game, the "Boiler-makers" proved more potent than the "Ohio Buckeyes," their first score coming when Warren made a wide end run of about 20 yards. Near the end of the third period, Gonzales, "Boiler-maker" quarterback, found a hole in the line and with excellent interference accounted for the other touchdown. In converting they pulled off a fake kick, and Beasley smashed through the line for the extra point.

40 Eligible For Race At Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 28.—(UP)—Qualification lists for the 500-mile automobile race Saturday were closed today with 40 drivers, a record-breaking number, eligible to start. Another seven passed speed tests but were dropped as the slowest to reduce the field to 39. In addition, a special ruling made the Cummins special, the only Diesel-motored automobile in the race, a starter.

All the gasoline-powered entrants surviving averaged better than 100 miles an hour in the 10-mile time trials. The qualifying speed was 90 miles an hour. The Cummins Special, required to make 80 miles, qualified at more than 96. This is the fastest field ever to participate in the race.

CALIFORNIA CREWS HEAD EAST MONDAY

BERKELEY, May 28.—Preparing for the four-mile grind at Poughkeepsie June 16, "Ky" Ebright, University of California crew coach, has been juggling the oarsmen of his first two boats until the crews are hardly to be recognized as the same that rowed against Washington a little over a month ago. The Golden Bear crews leave for Poughkeepsie Monday.

Ebright's jugglery marks the beginning of the final stages of preparation before the Bears leave for the East. The varsity will go through the time trials over the full four-mile course once and possibly twice this week. Results of the trials will very likely determine whether further shifts in the boatings will be necessary.

SARPOLIS DEFEATS EVERETTE MARSHALL

LOS ANGELES, May 28.—(UP)—Taking two out of three falls, Dr. Karl Sarpolis, of Cleveland, defeated Everett Marshall, of Denver, in the main event of a wrestling show at the Olympic last night. Marshall won the first fall with an airplane spin in 21 minutes 38 seconds. Sarpolis took the second in 12:35 with an arm lock and the third in 2:35 with a body lock. Marshall weighed 218 and Sarpolis 215.

BETTY NUT HALL WINNER OVER HELEN JACOBS

AUTEUIL, France, May 28.—(UP)—Miss Betty Nuthall of England, holder of the United States women's tennis championship, defeated Miss Helen Jacobs of California, 6-3, 6-2, in a quarter-final match of the French hard courts championships, today.

The match was the most important one thus far in the women's singles division. It was regarded as a near-championship affair for Miss Nuthall and Miss Jacobs were prime favorites to at least reach the finals. Miss Nuthall won easily in the first set. She played often at the net. Her drives were much faster than those of the American girl. In the second set Miss Nuthall was off to an early lead of three games to one. In the fifth game Miss Jacobs played with increasing vigor. She won two points with smashing placements to lead 40-15 and went on to win the game. The score was then 5-2 and it was Miss Jacobs' service. Helen, however, made two double faults and lost at love; Miss Nuthall won a second consecutive love game, on her own service, to lead at 5-2. Miss Jacobs won the first point of the eighth game but was guilty of four consecutive outs to lose game, set and match. Miss Nuthall was then established as an apparently certain tournament winner. Jiro Satoh, Japanese singles champion and Davis Cup player, advanced to the semi-final round of the men's singles by defeating Johnny Van Ryn, United States, 8-6, 1-6, 2-6, 6-4, 6-3, in a quarter-final round match.

SAINT HOPES HIGH FOR TRACK IN 1932

Scott's third successive single added one more in the eighth. Bailey's slugging easily featured Riverside's run-making. The big outfielder got a home run in the second inning when his long drive to right hit an electric wire and eluded Merrill. He swatted a real home run with two aboard in the ninth. All the other Riverside runs were the result of wild throws by Santa Ana infielders.

Bobby Jones Asked To Play Collegians

(PALO ALTO, May 28.—UP)—

Bobby Jones was asked by Palo Alto charity workers today to play with three Stanford university amateurs in an exhibition match at the new Stanford links Saturday.

The proceeds of the match, which hinges on Jones' ability to get away from his motion picture work in Hollywood, will benefit the Stanford Convalescent Home for Children.

Lawson Little, Charles Seaver Jr., and Malcolm McNaughton have been chosen to play in the foursome.

FILES SUIT OVER STORE NAME USE

Asserting that an attempt has been made to defraud him and appropriate to their own use and benefit the good will of his business through attempting to lead his customers and the general public into believing that they were successors to the Ranch Market, which he operates, suit has been filed by Joe Zaklet against John Kunzelman and C. E. Schwenk, et al.

Zaklet asserts in his complaint that the defendants on May 23 "willfully, wrongfully and unlawfully" printed and circulated in Santa Ana a mimeographed circular, which announces that they are opening as a successor to Ranch Market at 1202 South Main street. Zaklet's Ranch Market is located at 1245 South Main and was formerly located at 1202 South Main.

He asks $1000 general damages and $1000 exemplary damages and further use of the name Ranch Market in the advertising of the defendants, who are members of the Blue and White chain stores organization.

Court Notes

Inventory and appraisal report in connection with the estate of Orin Vanatta, which has been filed with County Clerk J. M. Backs, gives the estate a value of $7336.39.

Asserting that a previous judgment of $500 and costs, which was given in a Los Angeles county court is wholly due and unpaid, complaint has been filed in superior court by Jay Jacobs against Elmer H. Chaffee and wife asking judgment for $553 plus interest from the date of the former judgment.

Judge James L. Allen has approved a petition for compromise settlement of a disputed damage claim against Merle Porter. The petition was filed by Fred Wheeler, whose son Kenneth, 15, was knocked down January 13, 1931, while riding his bicycle, by a car operated by Porter. The compromise approved by the court calls for payment of $137 by Porter, of which the attorney for the petitioners is to receive half.

A remittitur and copy of the opinion of the second district court of appeals in connection with an Orange county damage case that had been appealed has been received by County Clerk J. M. Backs. It upholds the ruling of the Orange county court in a finding for the plaintiff, Marguerite Wilson, against Emil Kestenholtz, who had made the appeal. The case was based on an accident in Anaheim when the defendant's car struck the plaintiff as she was walking down the road ahead of him.

Inventory and appraisal reports have been filed by Appraiser John N. Anderson in connection with two estates. They showed values as follows: William Doller, $4000; D. J. Murray, $1300.

FEET SO SORE - COULDN'T WALK

A 20-minute Oxygen bath and all burning, pain and inflammation gone.

Walked to Work Happy and Thankful Next Morning

There's a marvelous new discovery out for sore, tired, aching feet. It's called Radox and is compounded to actually remove the cause of all foot distress.

See for yourself—just soak those tortured feet for 20 minutes in a gallon of hot water to which 2 tablespoonfuls of Radox have been added. Instantly pain, soreness and swelling—your feet feel strong, robust and youthful. Hard skin on heels and soles is gently soaked away. Tired muscles and foot nerves are rejuvenated.

You see Radox charges the water with Oxygen which opens and soaks thru the pores, bringing in healing, soothing comfort and drawing out those harmful acids and poisons which cause fatigue, pain and foul odors. Nothing can do this but Radox.

Over 100 Guests Attend Engineers' Club Banquet

OFFICERS FOR ENSUING YEAR ARE SELECTED

Climaxing an eventful year of activities, the Santa Ana High school Engineering club was host last night to 103 members, parents and guests at the annual club banquet held at Ketter's cafe.

The features of the program was a lecture by Walter G. Blossom, of the Southern California Edison company, on "Edison's Contribution to California." The talk was illustrated with moving pictures and traced the development of water power up to present time. This topic was in accord with the latest project of the club, a public address system for the school. In the assembly tomorrow, the Engineers will have charge of the program and formally present the new amplifying system.

Bill Campbell, outgoing president, was master of ceremonies. A short business meeting and program was given by the club members preceding the main address. Robert MacFarlane, business manager, gave a financial report. Dick Pinkerton gave a talk on amateur radio. Max Elliott discussed the public address system and control of the vacuum tube, and Harold Knight offered two vocal solos, accompanied by Floyd Best.

After an election of officers, Rodney Engle was chosen to succeed Campbell as president. Jack Shields was elected vice president to succeed Russell Mathews. Jack MacFarlane was selected secretary to succeed Dick Pinkerton and Leonard Thompson will take the place of Bob MacFarlane as business manager.

The club was honored by the presence of several distinguished guests, all of whom made short talks. Included in the guest list with their wives or friends, was Dr. Percy Davis, assistant superintendent of schools; J. A. Cranston, retiring superintendent of schools; D. K. Hammond, principal; George Wells, president of the school board; Rolla Hays, W. M. Burke, M. B. Touel of the school board; Rufus G. Bond, head of the mechanical arts department; George Holmes, head of the commercial department; Thomas E. Williams, printing instructor; G. M. Wooley, chemistry instructor; Stewart Carlier, chemistry instructor; Byron Quiley, machine shop instructor and Floyd Howard, chief of police.

Charles Tibbetts, faculty advisor of the club for the past 10 years, gave a short talk outlining the history and purposes of the club. At the conclusion of his talk, the club presented him and Mrs. Tibbetts with an electric mantle clock in appreciation of his work with the organization. Pins were also given to all the seniors in the club.

A list of 77 persons to whom bequests totaling $98,768.82 are made under the will of Joseph P. Mayhew, is contained in the amended report of inheritance tax appraisal which was filed with County Clerk J. M. Backs yesterday by Tax Appraiser John N. Anderson.

The estate, which was valued at $110,230.83, calls for payment of inheritance tax amounting to $142,179. Deductions allowed, including expenses of the last illness and funeral, debts, taxes, commissions and administration expenses, totaled $11,464.01, leaving a clear market value of $98,768.82, which was the sum distributed to the heirs and beneficiaries of the will.

The largest single inheritance went to Joseph Risley, a descendant of a brother of the maker of the will, who received $275,065, of which $1800 was for university expenses for a three year period.

Of the total amount, $38,976.75 went to persons who were not related to Mayhew, according to the report, being divided into 10 bequests of $1901.31 each and 29 bequests of $950.65 each.

FARM ADVISOR GIVES TALK ON CITRUS FUTURE

Valencia orange growers of this county are particularly favored in that they have but indifferent competition in the marketing of that product, according to Harold E. Wahlberg, county farm advisor. In his talk before the chamber of commerce at Brea yesterday, he was introduced by Dr. Dave Goodwin, in charge of the program.

Florida's 200,000 acres of citrus groves, much of which will come into bearing in 1933, 100,000 acres in Texas, only about two per cent of which is now in bearing and some of which may not be considered permanent, and citrus acreage in Arizona have to date offered little in the way of competition to valencia shippers and it is possible that another 10 years of fairly good sailing may be enjoyed by California growers in marketing their crops. After that time the matter is open for conjecture, said Wahlberg, and a combination of splendid soil plenty of water, diligent study and application of scientific agricultural principles, along with a level head will be required to bring about the measure of success which has heretofore been enjoyed. Other competitive problems which the valencia grower must meet in the future will be the proposed marketing by out of state growers of canned grapefruit and of bottled juices of both the grapefruit and the orange during the spring and summer months when the valencia orange is in the peak of production.

The citrus industry, Wahlberg declared, has been responsible for bringing into Southern California many millions of dollars and its growth has been out of all proportion to the population of that district, necessitating an intensive national advertising campaign to assist in marketing the crops.

Southern California claims 200,000 acres of citrus groves, most of which is planted to valencia oranges, about 72,000 acres of which are within Orange county. Of this acreage 60,000 acres are now in bearing, the remainder representing groves under six years old.

W. A. Culp brought out the fact that within a radius of two miles from the center of Brea there are now approximately 7000 acres planted almost entirely to valencia, most of which will come into first bearing within the next three years. This means that practically 10 per cent of the present citrus acreage of the county lies in the Brea district and that, as stated by Wahlberg, the community can lay claim to agricultural as well as petroleum possibilities with future honors probably leaning to the first named industry.

Members welcomed after long absences were Walker Davis, W. D. Shaffer, M. P. Gilliland and Jack Collins.

Police Chief Floyd Howard has arranged with Larry Rundell, staff photographer for the Santa Ana Register, to make the photograph of each member of the newly organized Junior Police force.

These photographs will be made of uniform size and background. Five copies will be made of each photo. Of these five, one copy will be attached to the identification card which each member of the force is required to carry; one copy will go into the file of the department for future reference; another copy will form part of a composite group to be hung in the office of the chief of police. The two remaining copies will be for the personal use of the young policeman.

The Rundell studio is located on the second floor of the Register building, Sycamore and Third streets.

From 2 to 5 p. m. Thursday and Friday is the time set aside for the taking of photographs of the Junior police and members are requested to be governed accordingly.

LOCAL JUNIOR COLLEGE YEAR BOOK APPEARS

Distributed in May for the first time in school history, the Santa Ana Junior college yearbook, Del Ano, was in the hands of the students today and was declared to be one of the best annuals of the college.

Miss Betty Maloney served as editor-in-chief of the attractive black and green book and has been supervising the work since last September. An entirely new motif and dedication were carried out, being beauty and the pursuit of high ideals. A novel and original art theme was developed to display this idea. Miss Goldie Peale, art editor and Miss Anna Gilles, head of the art department, were responsible for the art work.

The entire book was printed in the college print shop under the personal direction of Thomas E. Williams, instructor. It was mainly through his efforts that the work was speeded through to completion so early. The engraving was done by the Santa Ana Engraving company and the binding by the Weber-McCrea company, of Los Angeles. All linotype work was done by Willard Francis, of the school shop. Alfred Hastie did the presswork and Jack Road supervised the makeup. All photographic work was done by the Mary Smart studios and Joseph Koons.

Edwin Kilbourne, business manager, worked with Miss Maloney in the publishing of the book. L. L. Beaman served again in the capacity of business advisor, while Mrs. Eleanor Northcross was literary advisor. The book contained 140 pages and was printed with black ink on special nearly-white paper. Besides getting the book out early, the editors had a surplus of over $100, another record for the college publication.

The staff which worked with Miss Maloney was as follows: Mary Lou Heath, student administration; Edwin Kilbourne, business manager; Goldie Peale, art editor; Margery Adams, sophomores; Dulcie Green, freshmen; Elva Cook, organizations; Joanna Day, publications; James Lukens, Music; Betty James, social; Leell Slaback, men's sports; Eugene Richards, women's sports; Jos Koons, college life, and Helen Hendricks, typist. The art staff included Robert Marshall, Willetta Bozell, Harley Melzian, Geraldine Cole, Donna Crawford, Doris Bolles and Florine Pollock.

SALVATION ARMY WORK IS BOOSTED

Great impetus to the work of the Salvation Army was the result of the inspirational meetings held by General Edward J. Higgins, international head of that organization, in San Francisco the past five days, according to Brig. James Dee, who returned this week from the meetings in the Bay city. Brigadier Dee is commanding officer of the Orange Belt division.

"We come back," the brigadier said, "more willing to go forward with the work than ever before. When we were able to get a vision of what the Salvation Army means in a day of transition such as the one through which we are now passing, when we were able to see its power as a cementing force to

SPECIAL MUSIC PRESENTED FOR BREAKFASTERS

Merriment reigned supreme at the session of the Santa Ana Breakfast club this morning, with rapid fire exchanges of repartee between witty members of the organization, impromptu stunts and a snappy musical program.

Dr. R. O. Grover proved a one man orchestra with his manipulation of a mouth organ, banjo and bass drum. The other musical feature of the morning was a group of piano numbers in the modern manner by Everett Idler, junior college student and manager of Idler's band. The program today was arranged by Dr. K. A. Loerch, who presided during that part of the club session.

Attractive Grounds Provide Setting For Party

The grassy lawn to the rear of Mrs. E. W. Spruance's home, 2215 North Ross street, yesterday afternoon beckoned invitingly to friends of little Eloise Spruance, daughter of the home, who celebrated her seventh birthday with a garden party.

Games of interesting variety were planned for the little girls and boys, and of popular appeal was the ball rolling contest. Prizes for the game of pinning the tail on the donkey, Joseph Gantman and Phyllis Clark were most successful, and were awarded desirable gifts. In entertaining her daughter's guests, Mrs. Spruance was assisted by Mrs. Leta Morton.

Those present, other than Mrs. Spruance and Mrs. Morton, were Eloise, the honoree, and Dorothy Westover, Marjorie Mize, Norma and Jane Daley, Dorothy Eley, Phyllis White, Barbara Jones, Both Thordike, Elaine and Harry Harlow, Melvin Trickey, Herbert Johnson, Barbara Jane McClellan, Billie Dunton, J. D. Edwards, Barbara Neff, La Rae Riley, Bennie, Betty and Joseph Gantman.

Many Flowers Needed By G. A. R. Post For Decoration Day

Many flowers are needed for the proper observance of Memorial day rites by the members of Sedgwick post G. A. R. and the auxiliary orders, Women's Relief Corps, Shiloh Circle and Daughters of Union Veterans, and a call has been issued by J. H. Scott, commander of the post, for contributions of flowers of all kinds.

Committees of workers will be at the east entrance to Birch park tomorrow afternoon to receive donations, and women of the auxiliary organizations will fashion the flowers into bouquets and wreaths for the decorating of graves of over 500 Civil war veterans in Fairhaven cemetery.

Friends who have flowers to give but have no way of sending them to the park may telephone J. R. Moore at 1914-W, C. F. Miller at 727-R, or W. I. Davis, 4254-W, and someone will call for the donations. This applies also to such schools as have made no provision for sending the children's contributions of blossoms to the park.

Dinner Bridge Comes As Postlude to Wedding

Directors and employees of the People's Finance joined last evening in entertaining at a delightful dinner bridge at the Rose Arbor Inn honoring Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bertelson, of 1224 Cypress avenue. Friends have been much interested in their marriage of recent date, for which license was issued in Riverside. Mrs. Bertelson will be remembered as Miss Leatrice Denny, 1614 North Parton street.

The host group and their guests gathered for the dinner early in the evening. Tables were prettily appointed, and brightened with bouquets of fragrant roses. A large basket of part-colored flowers was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Bertelson by Dr. C. W. Ralston, president of the company.

A session of bridge followed. With the checking of tallies it was revealed that Mrs. J. G. Sutherland and John Knox held high scores. Suitable consolation gifts were awarded Mrs. Knox and E. S. Johnson.

Those present, other than the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Bertelson, were Mr. and Mrs. John Kettler of Huntington Beach, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bower, Mr. and Mrs. John Knox, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fullerton Dinner Party Serves to Announce Wedding Date

In entertaining at a family dinner party last night in their home, 142 Yale avenue, Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes, former Santa Ana residents, took the opportunity to announce the approaching wedding of their daughter, Miss Helen Holmes, to Edward Thomas, also of Fullerton, the ceremony to occur Saturday, June 6.

Mrs. Holmes made her home doubly attractive by the use of many flowers in soft, bright colors, and the table where the delicious dinner menu was served, was decorated with its shining linen and delicate blossoms. Small radio announcers were placed at indicated places for the dinner, but revealed the selected wedding date of the two young people, who were given seats of honor at the table.

An informal evening of bridge followed the dinner hour, the game progressing to the accompaniment of discussion of wedding plans, for all present were closely related either to Miss Holmes or to Mr. Thomas.

The party included in addition to the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes and Miss Holmes and Mr. Thomas, Mrs. Lizzie Brockman and Harry Brockman, grandmother and uncle of the bride-elect; her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Solesbee all of Placentia; her aunt, Mrs. S. E. McKittick of Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Alexander, Miss Thomas and Mrs. Graves of Fullerton, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spencer and Miss Gladys Spencer of Anaheim, all of whom are members of Mr. Thomas's immediate family circle.

Guests included members of a club organized several years ago, and their daughters. Many flowers, including gladioluses and delphinium were used in decorating the rooms. The afternoon was devoted to bridge. The climax of the affair came when Miss Smith was presented with a handsome set of silver.

The refreshment hour was especially enjoyable, and during this time an orchid and pink color scheme was carried out, with dainty bouquets decking the tables. Nut-cups and ice-cream molds centered with bells were in the same delicate tints.

Writers' Club Holds Dinner Party and Program

Departing from their usual custom of an 8 o'clock meeting in the homes of club members, Quill Pen members Tuesday night shared an enjoyable dinner party as a prelude to their program of original stories and verse. For the dinner event, they motored to the Highway Tea garden on the Santa Ana-Anaheim boulevard where the small private dining room had been reserved for them.

Tall vases of "glads" ranging in hue from pale ivory through all variations of rose and orchid, graced the single large table where the five-course dinner was served. Not all the members were able to be present but those enjoying the pleasant affair included the president, Mrs. Marshall Harnois; the secretary, Mrs. Samuel E. Marshall; Mrs. J. D. Campbell, Mrs. Frank Was, Mrs. Herman Reuter, Mrs. Maude Goff, Mrs. J. U. Vau, Mrs. Emmett Elliott, and the Misses Lella Watson, Dorothy Clarkson and Pearl Camblin.

Adjoining to the home of Mrs. Was, 617 Orange avenue, the group devoted the remainder of the evening to a consideration of the manuscripts read by Miss Watson, Mrs. Vau and Mrs. Was. Miss Watson gave an unfinished story, "Loud Eaten," asking for suggestions as to the climax she outlined. Mrs. Vau read a romantic narrative program followed by an amusing monologue, and Mrs. Was read an interesting character development in "Twenty-seven Quarts of Crab-apples."

Mrs. Harnois will be hostess in two weeks, at which time a group of members will present an original one-act play.

For the refreshment hour appointments were carried out in yellow and blue, and a large birthday cake was of special interest. Payone for girls were prettily dressed dolls, while boys were delighted with airplanes found at their places. Balloons and part-colored ribbons added much to the attractive scene.

Merry Group Motors To Pasadena For Bridal Shower

Santa Ana, Garden Grove and Anaheim young people were among those sharing a delightful party of recent date, at which Miss Blanche Lewis, of this city, entertained in South Pasadena at the home of her honoree, Miss Dorothy Jane Caswell. Miss Caswell is the fiancée of Miss Lewis's brother, Arthur William Lewis, and the party was a surprise gift shower.

The young people motored to the W. B. Caswell home, 1735 South Hope street, where their plans for a surprise met with complete success. Shortly after their arrival, the guests presented the pretty miscellaneous gifts which they had chosen for the shower, and then continued with the plans for the evening's entertainment, by going in a party to an American Legion dance being held that night.

Late in the evening they returned to the Caswell home where a delectable midnight supper was awaiting them. Details of the wedding plans of Miss Caswell and Mr. Lewis were discussed. The wedding date of May 30 was announced some time ago, the nuptials to take place that afternoon at 5 o'clock in the San Encino abbey with a reception to follow for 100 or more guests.

Mr. Lewis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lewis of West Seventeenth street.

Guests sharing the pleasant surprise shower in addition to the hostess, Miss Blanche Lewis and her honor guests, Miss Caswell and Mr. Lewis, were Miss Flossie Davis, Miss Winifred Johnson, Miss Dolores Johnson, Miss Georgia Privett, Miss Privett and Cecil Johnson, of Santa Ana; Miss Ruth Heim and Floyd Scott of Anaheim; Miss Margaret Gardner, Miss Agnita Wheeler, Miss Anna Phillips, Miss Esther Guyton and Messrs. "Bill" Hewitt, Don Arrowsmith, Leonard Natland, Clyde Collins, Frank Annin and Harold Lewis, Garden Grove.

Other family members present were Carl's small brother, Burn, just a month old, and another brother, Donald.

Afternoon hours were pleasantly passed in playing games. A special part of the program was a solo by Donald Stevens, who frequently entertains over KREG. During the refreshment hour a pink and white color scheme was carried out, with dainty ice cream molds and cakes evidencing the chosen theme. Bouquets of gladioluses were used for decorations. One Can Help Being Fat seem to have it in for the fat this week, but it does get my skin when I hear them their redundant curves with famous old chestnut, "I come fat family, I can't help being fat. They may come of families which overweight is the rule, that doesn't say they can't do so. If they sincerely to do so.

fat-making foods are the delicious, and it is so easy to say oneself, "I'll just eat this shus dish of so-and-so today, tomorrow I'll start dieting, actively!" But the tomorrow that promise is kept rarely comes, weight keeps piling on, to the years, and then some day an attack of dizziness hits fat people and they hunt the doctor, and what does he tell them?

ear patient, your blood pressure is dangerously high, you've started on a rigid diet immediately, or the consequences are to be disastrous, perhaps.

it dig your grave with your for once dead, the play is for you. Remember what I told you about satisfying appetite in Tuesday's column: Fill up on leafy cooked vegetables, green salads, fresh fruits, a little meat, and the smallest possible allowance of bread and potatoes, then if you have any room left, you can safely fill it with your favorite sweet and fat things.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Strawberry Cream Cake
1-2 cup butter
11-2 cups sugar
2 egg whites, beaten stiff
3 cups sifted pastry flour
4 level teaspoons baking powder
1 cup sweet milk
1-4 teaspoon salt
1-2 teaspoon each, vanilla and lemon extract
1 cup heavy cream
1 egg white, beaten stiff
2 cups ripe berries, slightly crushed
3 tablespoons powdered sugar
This cake can be served hot from the oven, but it is more delicate in flavor if the whole thing is cooled and well chilled.

Cream the butter in a warmed bowl until very fluffy, add sugar slowly with more creaming, then the two flavoring extracts. To the 3 cups of sifted flour add baking powder and salt and sift twice. Alternate flour and milk in mixing and carefully fold in the stiffly beaten whites last of all.

Spread the delicate batter in three layer cake tins, having the batter higher at the sides than the middle. This helps to prevent that "humping" process which spoils a cake. Bake in medium oven.

Whip the cream and egg white in separate bowls, both to the stiff stage, then combine them and add the powdered sugar and berries very slightly crushed. Spread between and on top of the cake.

This cake will serve ten, but if there are any fat ones in your family cut their piece in half for the calories per portion are scandalous—500 of them and nearly all energy and fat makers.

SIMPLE SUMMER DESSERTS
The current leaflet, describes many delicious desserts you can make with a minimum of time and labor. Send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and the leaflet is yours, free of charge all this week.

Friday's cooking lesson describes a new combination of crab meat and tomato jelly in a salad. This would be nice for supper with hot biscuits.

Santa Anans Attend Meeting in Orange

The Relief Corps Federation No. 1 of Orange county held a meeting Monday afternoon in Orange, with many from Santa Ana attending.

They included Commander and Mrs. J. H. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Spencer, Mrs. Estelle Grey, Mrs. Fannie Newman, Mrs. Elizabeth Birkhead, Mrs. Hattie Cozad, Mrs. Julia Cozad and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Millem.

Grand Army day was celebrated, with Mrs. Grey as chairman of the program held in the morning. Members of the Orange W. R. C. were in charge of the afternoon entertainment.

'STEPPING OUT' FEATURES WELL KNOWN ACTORS

"Stepping Out," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's comical filmization of the New York stage hit, is the attraction which will open today at the Fox West Coast theater, with Charlotte Greenwood, Lella Hyams, Reginald Denny, Lillian Bond and Cliff Edwards in the principal roles.

Adapted personally to the screen by Elmer Harris, author of the original stage hit, the new play retains all the interest it had on the stage, with added motion picture elements to embellish its action.

The story is one of Hollywood and Agnes Callente; the tale of all millionaires who try to produce pictures, fall into the hands of Hollywood "gold diggers," have troubles galore with jealous wives, and hilarious adventures at the Monte Carlo before the border.

The Two Husbands
Denny and Harry Stubbs play the two unfortunate millionaires, with Miss Greenwood and Miss Hyams as the two wives. Miss Bond plays Cleo the vamp, the role she played in the original stage production and Merna Kennedy is her assistant in the gentle art of getting innocent millionaires into trouble.

Intimate glimpses of Callente are seen, the famous resort figuring in a talking picture for the first time. Amusing scenes in a large swimming pool add to the entertainment. "Stepping Out" was one of the biggest successes of the season on the New York stage.

BREA

BREA, May 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Sutliff, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Sutliff and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Sutliff have all returned from a visit of two days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Sutliff in Bakersfield.

Mrs. C. H. Woodruff spent Sunday visiting with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Reese and son, of Glendale.

Members of the Christian church choir went to Fontana Sunday evening, presenting a musical program in the Christian church of that city.

Dr. Remfrey W. Hunt, pastor of the Brea church of that denomination, delivered a sermonette, the choir gave four chorus numbers, J. L. Cummings and R. O. Williams each sang solos, Mr. and Mrs. John Gnag sang duets and they with Mrs. W. D. Hand formed a trio, while Mrs. E. H. Rodgers played violin solos.

Others who sang in the choir were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sullivan and their daughter, Miss Marian; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Kiger, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hand, Mrs. W. King, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Bates, Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mrs. Oliver Crow-

MARRIED SWEETHEARTS

Reginald Denny and Lella Hyams, in "Stepping Out," which opens at the Fox West Coast theater today. Charlotte Greenwood and Cliff Edwards also are in the cast.

VILMA BANKY SEEN IN FIRST TALKIE

Vilma Banky came through with flying colors last night at Walker's State theater, where she appeared in her first all-talking picture, "A Lady to Love," adapted from an original story by Sidney Howard and directed by Victor Seastrom, responsible for "He Who Gets Slapped" and "The Scarlet Letter." The blonde Hungarian star was a happy choice for the role of Lena, San Francisco waitress who accepts a proposal of marriage by mail on the strength of a photograph of the suitor enclosed in a letter. Her slight accent is an attraction rather than an impediment to her voice and is entirely in keeping with the role.

French was the native language of the British kings for many generations after the Norman conquest.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Alex Kuensli, who have been confined closely to their home for the past several weeks with illness, are reported as not so well again.

Odd Fellows of Brea report a satisfactory attendance at the Red Lantern theater here Monday night and last night at the program presented under the auspices of their order. The committee in charge was headed by O. J. Pickering, vice grand of the lodge.

"CHARLIE CHAN" AT FOX BR'DWAY TODAY

Patrons who view "Charlie Chan Carries On," new Fox mystery melodrama taken from the latest of Earl Derr Biggers' widely read "Charlie Chan" series, and which comes to the Fox Broadway theater today, are requested to keep a secret of the surprise denouement which is revealed in the thrilling climax.

The reason for this request is that the suspense and mystery of the picture have been skillfully built up to a climax quite different from the ordinary type of mystery thriller, and should the climax be revealed to friends, it would completely spoil the picture for them were they to view it.

Warner Oland plays the title role of the crafty Chinese sleuth in the new picture, which is the second of the series to be shown on the screen, the first having been "Behind That Curtain."

The supporting cast of the picture, which Hamilton MacFadden directed, are John Garrick, Marguerite Churchill, Warren Hymer, Marjorie White, William Holden, C. Henry Gordon, John T. Murray, Peter Gawthorne, and John Rogers.

SPRINGDALE

SPRINGDALE, May 28.—The commencement exercises for the five graduates of the Springdale school have been set for the evening of June 4 at the school. The program will open at 7:30 o'clock.

Mary Kettler will be the valedictorian and Alvin Hurst salutatorian, while the other class members are Doris Moore, John Mendenhall and Junita Wentzel. A school picnic is to be held before the close of school but the date has not been set.

LEARN FROM MY EXPERIENCE

"I HAVE found that using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly is the surest way to keep the members of my family from being constipated." Millions of users have found that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN guarantees sure relief from both temporary and recurring constipation.

Pills and drugs, as a rule, have to be taken in mounting doses—or they become useless.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN offers you natural, safe relief from the headaches, the dizziness, the loss of energy that accompany constipation. And it also furnishes iron, which helps put color in cheeks and lips.

Try it with milk or cream, fruits or honey added. Use it in cooking too.

QUITE HANDY FEET

DENVER—Louis Long has convenient feet when it comes to washing them. Long has been in the police "flap-house" for several nights, and a house rule says that all inmates must wash their feet before they go to bed. Long takes off both his feet—they are wooden—and scrubs them actively before he puts them under his head to serve as a pillow. He does this because he's afraid someone will run away with his artificial "dogs."

CAN BE MADE MORE tasty

sugar

As you make your selection of vegetables remember that their distinctive flavor can be heightened with sugar.

The combination of sugar and salt improves the flavor of vegetables in a most pleasing way. It emphasizes the mild taste of spinach; mellows the tartness of tomatoes; blends deliciously with the flavor of peas, carrots, string beans, cabbage, asparagus, onions and other vegetables.

In serving raw vegetables in salads, add at least as much sugar as salt to the French dressing. The smooth, zestful result will delight you.

"A dash of sugar to a pinch of salt" is also a fine seasoning for meat dishes, or soups and stews composed of meat and vegetables. Flavor and season with sugar. The Sugar Institute.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY MAI COCHRAN — PICTURES BY KNICK
REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

As Clowny eyed the bell, he said, "Well, goodness me, look overhead. What is that swinging log for? Tu hee they give the log a swing and that's what makes the big bell ring. No wonder you can hear the pretty peals all over town."

"You're right," replied the Travel Man. Then very promptly Scouty ran beneath the bell and pulled the chain that made the big log sway. It gently swung into the bell and Copy cried, "Gee, that sounds swell! But we have seen enough here. Come, let's all be on our way."

It wasn't very long until they heard wee voices, very shrill. "Oh, look!" said Carpy. "Aren't they cute?" He pointed to two boys who shuffled long in sandals queer and, as the youngsters came up near, they started waving at the bunch and making lots of noise.

"I guess they merely want to play," the Travel Man said. "But today I do not think we have the time. We're going to see some sights. I'll tell them, then, that we must go." The little boys seemed very pleased to meet the Tinymites.

Said Clowny, "Well, some other day we may have time to stop and play." And then they all shook hands as Mister Travel Man said, "Come, I'm going to take you to a place where you will see a monstrous vase. It's in a shop where they are made. I hope they're making some."

They found the shop and walked inside. "Oh, goody, goody!" Scouty cried. "A man is working hard right now. This is our lucky day. They stood and watched him carve, in glee. He was as clever as could be. The Travel Man explained, "That stuff is known as cloisonne." (Copyright, 1931, NEA Service, Inc.)

(The Tinymites meet some stills walkers in the next story.)

Missing Letter Links

RULES

1. In playing golf on the Missing Letter Links the object is to change one word to another in a given number of strokes which is par. For example, to go from TEE to PIN in three strokes sounds hard but isn't: TEE, TIE, PIE, PIN. It's probably more difficult on a real course.

2. Change but one letter at a time and be sure the word you have used is one in good usage.

3. The order of the letters cannot be changed.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN'S WISECRACK

Charlie Chaplin has been having an exciting time abroad. He refused to appear before the king in his capacity as an entertainer; and taken to task for it, he bluntly said he owed England nothing. England never did anything for him when he was a boy growing up. It was only when he came to America that he received a chance. There was no reason that he should show any favor even to a king. We admire Charlie for his independence. It is refreshing in view of the sycophancy of many Americans who kowtow to royalty and nobility when they are over there.

But Charlie has been saying some other things that sound well. He has been stumbling over words in the cafes of Europe, as did Hubert Griffiths, the English journalist. And he does not like it. He thinks the army business over there is being very much overdone. He concludes that the only remedy for it all is to send the old men into the next war, for he finds that the old men in Europe are the criminals in the case. Charlie is absolutely right in the matter. There would be no more wars if the old fellows who provoke them, and the interested parties who egg them on, had to do the fighting and the dying.

People are getting wise to that. When the War Department was about to stage a big mid-night airplane raid over New York a few days ago, those who took the Kellogg Peace Pact seriously began to protest against such provoking military maneuvers. The protest was strong enough to influence the War Department to cancel it, although the official announcement gave another reason for calling it off. It may be that war sometimes is necessary; but certainly there is nothing in the present state of the world which renders it necessary except a fight for trade and the studied propaganda to create a narrow and selfish nationalism.

Probable lament this summer: "It's a great life if you don't week-end."

DISTINGUISHED SUICIDES

One of the most notable phases of the present industrial and financial depression is the number of suicides among a class which is supposed to be secure against the varying tides of fortune. Last week, Ralph Barton, the distinguished caricaturist, committed suicide in New York. He left a pathetic note expressing his disgust with life, and his intense desire to end it. A few days ago a grandson of President James A. Garfield committed suicide in one of the houses of the Garfield estate at Mentor, Ohio. No cause was given. He had been very active in affairs. During the last political campaign he had been one of the foremost leaders of the Crusaders in his region, a tireless worker in the movement to repeal the Eighteenth Amendment.

Many more cases of a similar character might be cited, indicating that problems and melancholy are not the exclusive afflictions of the poor. A certain economic security is highly desirable; but if any one believes that economic security is a shield against discontent and worry, he may as well take a long second think. "Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown," said one of Shakespeare's kings. Quite as often, uneasy lies the head of the privileged and the gifted in other spheres of life. Happiness and satisfaction are elusive qualities. They are not always found by the most earnest seekers. They are rather the by-product of a life dedicated to high ends of justice and humanity, and in the pursuit of those intangible possessions that never can be measured on a yard stick or weighed on scales.

THE SKY IS THE LIMIT

Hitherto the layer of atmosphere around the earth's surface has never presented the challenge that it does today. For long hours the hosts of Europe were aroused while the fate of Professor Auguste Piccard and Charles Kipfer was in doubt. Now they have landed with data which will prove most interesting. There was a most daring exploit which has opened new avenues of progress for the curious and the daring.

Summers for the past ten years have been replete with thrills because of the various polar expeditions, and flights to Hawaii, and to Europe. Now, with the beginning of the best season for experimenting in the air two scientists have challenged the atmosphere which surrounds the earth. When hope that they were yet alive had practically waned, more like Gods than men they landed on Alpine peaks and walked down among mortals. The log of their journey, as well as their safe return from the Heavens starts one off on wild flights of fancy.

Their adventure has dramatized their experiment and brave and daring men, following them, will adventure farther.

A SIDELIGHT ON THE FILM INDUSTRY

It has been shown that the patronage of children at movie houses has declined since the introduction of the talkies. Children are interested by things they see rather than things they hear. The vision of the rescuers in the distance while the heroine is struggling for her life, or the hero is just on the verge of being overpowered, creates a thrill and a tension for the child that no spoken language can ever produce. Such visions are still manifest in the movies, but they are being minimized by the dialogue between actors.

We know by experience that such a very elaborate spectacle as Rinehart's "The Miracle" fell flat upon the mind of a twelve-year-old. When asked how he liked it, he replied, "It was dumb." The lords of filmland have to face the problem of entertaining children to face. Children will go wild over the comedy or the antics of trained dogs, but when the serious triangular sketch comes, they go to sleep or want to go home.

More and more the amusement business is facing serious problems. Once a set of stereopticon slides was sufficient to furnish an interesting evening's entertainment. Today films like Disraeli, and others of a similar nature, wonderful as they are, are box office failures. It is no wonder that the producers are compelled to follow other than their high ideals. After all, they are not in business for charity.

HOW COMES FAME

The mayor of Los Angeles jumped into the world news last week by refusing to drink liquor at a banquet in Paris given to the visiting mayors from the United States. No one outside of California might have known of his existence had it not been that he refused a drink on the ground that a citizen of the United States ought to obey the laws of his country in foreign lands.

It is not the great thing that brings international fame. Rather is it the unusual thing. When a dog bites a man, said the late Charles A. Dana, of the New York Sun, it is not news; but when a man bites a dog, that is news. The mayor of Los Angeles did the unusual thing. Such is fame.

Some Miniature Golfers Graduate

Christian Science Monitor

The golfing season again is in "full swing." Already the cards have been turned in at one international professional tournament, the British amateur title has gone back home, and more than 1100 golfers acquainted with the elusive Mr. Par have entered as contestants for the United States open championship.

Along with the news of the golfing tournaments comes a report that never before in the history of the ancient game have there been so many enthusiastic beginners taking up the sport. That means that the annual trek of the "duffers" is on, only in greater force than in previous years.

Golfing interests attribute the record attendance at golf courses in part to the 1930 success of miniature golf. This seems reasonable. Who of us have not said when playing on a miniature course that we would like to try the "big game"? The swarming of thousands of last year's miniature golf fans to country clubs this spring has been largely responsible for the reduction which many clubs have instituted in membership and greens fees. The lower cost of golfing tends to make it not a "rich man's game," as it has long been called, but everybody's game. Crowding of courses has prompted the building of new ones, thus giving work to many unemployed. The latter steps are significant ones. Not only do new golf courses provide somewhat of a sanctuary for birds, but they also beautify the countryside or city where they are located.

Golf has come a long way since a Scottish lad swinging the crook of his shepherd's staff made a shot which was to be heard "round the world."

Slow Speed As Dangerous As High Speed on Highway

San Bernardino Sun

A motorist in an eastern state driving a main thoroughfare on a recent fine Sunday afternoon, was moved to great indignation because traffic officers, at two different points along his route, threatened him with arrest unless he drove faster. He maintained he had a right to choose his own speed and go as slowly as necessary to enable him to look at the trees, flowers and lawns as he drove by. He appealed to his automobile club to sustain him in his opinion. But somebody dug up a state statute which read:

No person shall operate a motor vehicle on a public road or highway at a speed greater or LESS than is reasonable or proper, having due regard for traffic, surface or width of road or highway, and for any other conditions then existing.

The traffic men maintain, and most people agree with them, that a busy highway is no place for exceptionally slow driving. The laggard motorist slows up all traffic and may cause a serious jam or a bad accident by compelling others behind him to pass him or to adopt his speed.

Is there then no place for comfortable, leisurely driving for enjoyment of air and scenery? Yes, on the side roads and byways, when there is almost no other traffic on them.

Old Lands Go Modern

Oakland Tribune

The sheik of the desert wears sun goggles! He even hails taxicabs and goes in for a game of tennis. The Near East has new ways and the traditional descriptive word "unchanging" is in the discard.

So writes Dr. Maynard Owen Williams, member of the Trans-Asian Expedition, now in Persia on the first journey across Asia by motor car. The "Unchanging East" is in a state of rapid flux, Dr. Williams says. "From Syria to the heart of Mesopotamia we have found costumes and customs, hitherto distinctive and of picturesque utility, changing with the passing of every day."

The Near East lives intensely today. Certainly no area is undergoing such rapid and sweeping changes. The price of remaining unchanged for centuries is now being paid, not in slow installments, but in a lump sum. The influx of Western ideas of thought and action, through mechanical devices, occidental clothing, and even canned foods, all are conspicuous.

In America the private auto is killing some trolley lines by slow famine. Asia moves faster, since it did not have the same start. Overnight, Arabs, Turks and Syrians have gotten into the habit of hailing a taxi.

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

TO A SLUG

In Spring I dig and rake and hoe,
I spend unending weary hours
Endeavoring to make things grow,
Including trees and grass and flowers.
I ply the spade, I till the soil,
More jaded I become, and thinner,
I bend my back with ceaseless toil
To get your dinner.
Which you and all your freeddy brood
Partake, but not with gratitude.

Year after year it is the same:
I work as long as I am able,
My hands grow sore, my back grows lame
And all to furnish forth your table.
I train the grape upon the wall,
I hoe the budding peas, and all
To fill your stomach.
Then you feed fat, in serried ranks,
Without a single word of thanks.

The cow, the goat, and all their ilk,
Although they eat a lot per diem,
Requite with butter, beef and milk
The pabulum that we supply 'em.
But you are placid and serene,
You mock all efforts to defeat you;
Whatever happens, you are sure
We shall not eat you.
And though we ardently abhor you
We must admit we're working for you.

Who Is Hurt By Falling Prices?

By WILLIAM TRUFANT FOSTER and WADDILL CATCHINGS

The prosperity of 1928 and 1929, like every other forward movement of business, ended in what is called "overproduction." A better name, as we pointed out recently, is "underconsumption," because that term indicates the source of the trouble.

Business slows down and throws men out of work because consumer buying falls off. Consumer buying falls off partly because both corporations and individuals save too much money. Too much saving — too little buying — causes a fall in the price-level.

Well, what of it? Surely consumers have no objection to lower prices! Why can't we keep on increasing output by means of new invention, at lower unit costs, and sell the total product on a constantly falling price-level?

Theoretically that is just the thing to do. Industry could sell an ever-increasing volume of goods, at ever-falling prices, if under these conditions industry could produce the goods.

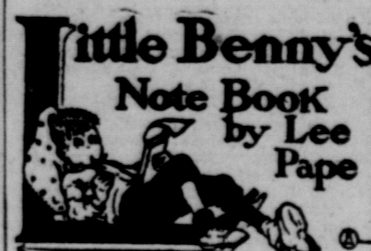

There's the rub. Industry could not produce the goods, because falling prices discourage production. The uncertainty as to how long they will fall, and how far, forces producers to discharge men and curtail output. As a rule, they have no choice.

Employers have to do business today in the world as it is today. In this world, profits fall with falling prices. There are exceptions, of course, but not enough exceptions to keep men out of the bread lines.

That is why falling prices do not help consumers as a whole. A man without a job presently becomes a man without money; and a man without money cannot buy at any price.

A declining price-level—in other words, monetary deflation—is not the way out. Our aim must be to keep up such a flow of money to consumers that they can buy the current output of finished goods at current prices.

Me and pop was taking a walk before supper and all of a sudden we saw a axident, being a truck coming round the corner fast as anything and bumping into a little automobile and everybody stopped to look and see what elts would happen, pop saying, There, thats what comes of carelessness and negligents and bonchedded driving, some of these truck drivers awt to be put in the stock and whipped to teach them a good lesson.

You sed it some other man sed. Being a little man with a big stummkick, saying, It would be worth living for to see one of these reckless drivers get whats coming to him just once, he sed.

Id like to see this berd get a good stiff fine for this piece of werk, pop sed. What the good of being a careful driver yourself if these rowdies are going to endanger your life just a same? he sed.

Its a confounded outrage, the other man sed, and pop sed, Its a menace to public safety, thats what it is.

Wich just then the two drivers stopped arguing with each other and the man from the little automobile came up to pop, saying, You were here the whole time, I bleeve, Id like to request you to let me have your name and address as a witness against this fellow.

Why, uh, Id be glad to, ony it all happened so quickly that I dont know if Id be quite willing to sware to anything, pop sed, and the man sed to the little fat man, You saw the whole thing, didnt you?

Why, uh, yes, that is to say yes and no, if you know what I mean, I dont think I could qualify as a witness, the little fat man sed, and the other man sed, Ah boloney. And he got back in his little automobile and drove away mad, pop saying, Well, after all he ony had one fender dented a little, and the little fat man saying, Yes, it would be different if it had been anything serious, if you know what I mean.

And he kept on going and so did me and Pop.

Proving its less trouble to sound helpful than to actually be that way.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By GLENN FRANK

NATIONAL PLANNING AGAIN

The other day I suggested that the paramount issue of 1932 campaign should be "central planning" to bring order out of economic chaos.

I suggested further that I should cast my vote for President for the candidate who, in my judgment, seemed most likely to further this planning.

Today I want to protest in advance a possible misinterpretation to which these statements are open. I am not thinking of a Five Year Plan, let us say, under which the United States would seek to steal the technique of a Stalin.

I am not thinking of an economic super-government to be set up in Washington to play dictator to American economic energy and enterprise.

There is room and need for a National Economic Council to give special attention to our economic status and prospect, but when I speak of "central planning" I am not thinking of an enforceable national program mapped out by such a council.

I am thinking, in fact, not of a "central planning" so much as of several "central plannings" inspired by a central leadership that a president might give.

Democracy must function through the contagion of leadership rather than the commands of dictatorial power.

And most of the national planning board proposals now current, looking so logical on paper, will prove futile unless backed by a dictator or by the sort of emergency powers that governments exercise in war-time.

I should dislike to see a national planning board invested with wartime powers of dictation, but economic America dares not play the role of Headless Horsemen in the years immediately ahead.

It is, of course, absurd to think that any President, can, single-handed, prevent or cure an economic debacle that is world-wide, but a magnificent opportunity will be open to the President in the years just ahead. By the prestige of his post he can make the nation listen when he has something to say. And just now America needs a ministry of vivid and realistic interpretation of the real meaning of the current economic situation, an interpretation that will drive the varied leaderships of our economic life out of their narrow rabbit-warrens of special interests and force them to think nationally.

It is not just cussedness that is ham-stringing our economic life, and the results of a central body of analysts and planners, passed through the mind of a national leader gifted to see their meaning and to translate them into terms that would capture and convince the leadership of business, industry, and finance should, I think, go far towards bringing order out of chaos.

A planned communism may well outdistance a planless capitalism, but a magnificently led democracy can evolve a socially sound economic life that will outlive all the economic dictatorships that may arise.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

PASSING THE WORD

Gossip is not countenanced by high minded people, and we are all supposed to be high minded folk in America. Now and then a loose tongued person rouses a community to fever heat by passing the word along that this one or that one is not exactly what he might be. This is bad enough for grown people but when a child is in the question it is worse than bad. I have no word for it.

Suppose you happened to be in a grocery store and saw a child filch an orange from the box, would you go out and spread the word abroad that the child was not to be trusted, that he was, in short, a thief? That has been done and the child and his family forced to leave the community to find peace. Perfectly respectable people, good citizens, at that.

If you saw a girl slip a note to a boy would you whisper a story about it to a curious neighbor, or would you keep the matter completely to yourself? Childhood sweethearts have been celebrated in song and story through the centuries. There is nothing so extraordinary about them. Most of us have had our experiences in that field and look back on them with smiling content and a gentle warmth about the heart. To whisper and point and lift the eyebrows until a community rings with the tale of depravity is to be a slanderer of childhood and declare yourself unsafe in the bosom of society. A dangerous person is he of the loose tongue and the spiteful mind.

All children make mistakes, and some of them are tragic in their consequences. The suffering endured by Youth is keen enough, severe enough, without any additional weight; not even a feather-weight of a whispered word should be added. If you cannot help, be silent. Let the mantle of understanding charity cover the weakness of childhood. It will become an adult to lend his strength to the cause of suffering.

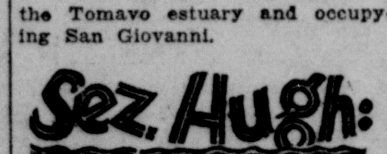

There are some seemingly conscientious people who make it their daily duty to watch children and report their every slip, even the imagined slips. If the children are not discovered and punished justice is not served, righteousness is not maintained. Well, I cannot see it that way. Fathers and mothers and teachers know what the children are about. The details may not always be clear, but the general outline is usually standing out distinctly. All the necessary correction and adjustment can be made without calling in the neighbors, passing the word along, until every tree and stone and barking dog seems to be shouting aloud the name and ill fame of a mistaken child.

Once in a long while it happens that it is necessary for an outsider to speak about something that is wrong. The word should be said in secret to the person most concerned, one who is reliable and in close relationship to the child. But the informer is bound by all that he should hold dear, not to mention the matter to anyone else. It is possible to keep a secret and this is the time.

Let any word you pass along about a child be a good word. So you shall help him to be good and strengthen your community. It is an unworthy deed to pass along bad news.

BRAZIL'S WAR MEASURE

On May 28, 1917, the Brazilian Chamber of Deputies passed the first reading of the administration measure revoking Brazil's neutrality in the war between Germany and the United States.

The bill was amended to authorize the government to utilize German ships in Brazilian waters. During the debate on the bill, the greatest enthusiasm was shown in the chamber. The galleries were crowded with members of the diplomatic corps and other prominent persons. A pacifist deputy who attempted to speak was interrupted by other deputies who cried, "The Germans are assassins."

On this day in Europe the Germans failed in three attempts to wrest Moronvillers Heights from the French. The Italians, on their front, were successful in crossing
